1 MARSHAL OF THE COURT: The International
2 Military Tribunal for the Far East is now in session.

3 THE PRESIDENT: Colonel Mornane.

4 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE (Reading):

5 "MAKE OUR EMPIRE'S ECONOMY HIGHER, WIDER 6 AND STRONGER!"

7 I am starting on the wrong page, if the 8 Court please.

9 "The Outline of Ten-Year Plan for Block
10 Economy of Japan-Manchoukuo-China

11 (The Yomiuri, dated November 8, 1940.)

12 "MAKE OUR EMPIRE'S ECONOMY HIGHER WIDER AND 13 STRONGER!"

14 "ESTABLISH A SOLID CO-PROSPERITY SPHERE!"

15 THE PRESIDENT: You are reading from exhibit
16 No. 2224?

17 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: Yes, this is from 18 exhibit 2224, which was put in evidence last night.

19 "Our government previously concluded 'a 20 summary' of the fundamental national policy' immediately 21 after the Cabinet was formed, and announced it on 22 August 1st. The Government, since then, has been 23 studying, principally with the Planning Board, how 24 to embody 'the establishment of a Co-operative 25 Economic Sphere' unifying Japan, Manchukuo and China

1 and embracing the Greater East Asia. And the draft
2 of 'the Outline of a Plan for Block Economy of Japan-
3 Manchukuo-China' was recently completed, and was made 4 public on the 5th instant, as follows: (The above 5 photo is the President HOSHINO of the Planning Board)."

6 Coming back to page 1:

7 "The Cabinet Intelligence Bureau announces:

8 "Our fundamental policy to establish Co-9 Prosperity Sphere of Greater East Asia which aims to 10 form new order in the world, has now entered a new 11 stage, by the conclusion of the Tripartite Treaty
12 between Japan, Germany and Italy. In order to con-13 form with this situation, our Government decided, at 14 the recent Cabinet meeting, upon the outline of Block
15 Economy of Japan-Manchukuo-China upon which our future
16 policies will be controlled and carried out. And aim 17 of this policy is to spur the progress of the Co-18 Prosperity Sphere of Greater East Asia which is based 19 upon the synthetic development of new economic order 20 between Japan, Manchukuo and China.

21 "Now the world economy of free trade in 22 which all countries can trade their resources, is now
23 collapsing before our own eyes. Our economy, too, 24 must shake off its old system based upon the old order 25 and set up a new one, which will make it a higher,

1 broader and stronger one, so as to push up the living 2 standard of the nations in Greater East Asia and to 3 enable them to live in contentment and peace -- in 4 other words, 'higher' means to give greater pro-
5 ductive power to the nation's life; 'broader' means 6 to extend the economic sphere of reciprocal dependence, 7 from Japan, Manchukuo and China to Greater East Asia
8 and to establish a solid Co-Prosperity Sphere; and 9 'stronger,' to make the Imperial Economy depend to 10 the least possible degree upon other countries and 11 stand as firm as a rock in any situation.

12 "In order to make our economy thus higher, 13 broader and stronger, the whole nation must combine 14 their efforts and be resolute to overcome those 15 difficulties in the country which arise from the 16 reform and to reject any possible pressure or threats 17 from abroad. In the course of ten years we must 18 complete the new economic order in East Asia with 19 Japan as its leader. Only in this new order can 20 Manchukuo, China and all other countries in East 21 Asia look forward to a glorious development of their 22 economy.

23 "Main Points of Outline of Establishment of 24 the Economy.

25 "In order to accomplish our mission to

1 establish new order in East Asia and to maintain 2 permanent peace in the world, we must unify and 3 promote the process of reforming our national system 4 and the process of enlarging the sphere of our 5 existence. Accordingly our basic economic policies 6 must be established on a synthetic plan of the 7 following three big processes:

8 "1. To complete the reorganization of our 9 national economy.

10 "2. To organize and strengthen the Japan-
11 Manchukuo-China economy.

12 "3. To enlarge the scale of Co-Prosperity 13 Sphere of East Asia.

14 "Basic Policies.

15 "Japan -- will devote herself to developing 16 basic manufacturing industries.

17 "Manchukuo and China -- basic industries
18 and resources.

19 "1. The establishment of the Japan-Manchukuo-20 China economy aims, in the course of ten years, at 21 obtaining economic independence for the three 22 countries as a whole and promoting the establishment 23 of the Co-Prosperity Sphere in East Asia, so as to 24 strengthen the position of East Asia in world economy.

25 "2. The Imperial spirit of guidance in the

1 establishment of the Japan-Manchukuo-China economy 2 lies in promoting co-existence, co-prosperity and 3 general welfare by means of the joint efforts of 4 Japan, Manchukuo and China in accordance with the 5 great spirit of 'hakko ichiu' / all peoples under one 6 roof/.

7 "3. In order to promote the establishment 8 of the Japan-Manchukuo-China economy, Japan will 9 enhance her national morale, reform her internal 10 state of affairs and try to enrich her national 11 power, and will help and support Manchukuo and China 12 in establishing their economy. For this purpose she 13 will devote herself to promoting an epoch-making 14 development of science, technical skill and pioneer 15 manufacturing industries.

16 "4. Manchukuo, quite inseparable from Japan, 17 is expected to rapidly arrange and develop her im-
18 portant basic industries.

19 "5. China is expected to cooperate with 20 Japan and Manchukuo, to develop her resources, to 21 revive her economy, and to devote herself especially 22 to the development of communications, smooth trade of 23 resources, basic industries and resources, and thus 24 to contribute to the establishment of the Co-Prosperity 25 Sphere in East Asia.

1 "6. In order to adjust and promote a com-
2 prehensive plan for the establishment of Japan-
3 Manchukuo-China economy, a structure will be set up
4 for a synthetic plan of the Japan-Manchukuo-China
5 economy.

6 "Since they form the backbone of the Co-7 Prosperity Sphere in East Asia, Japan, Manchukuo and 8 China are under an obligation to regulate their 9 economic relations in very close combination. From 10 this point of view, the Government has decided upon 11 the basic policies of industry, labor, finance, trade 12 and communication of Japan, Manchukuo and China.

13 "DIVISION OF INDUSTRIES.

14 "Japan will promote high-degree precision-15 tools industry.

16 "Manchukuo and China will develop mining, 17 electricity, and salt-manufacturing industries."

18 Turning now to page 4:

19 "Finance.

20 "Nationalistic Management shall be considered, 21 new financial facilities shall be established.

22 "In order to promote national-defense economy, 23 finance must function so as to meet national purposes.
24 It must enable the country to obtain materials of such 25 quality and quantities as it requires. We must decide

1 on a planned distribution of funds and keep such 2 financial facilities as practicable. It will be 3 necessary for us, we consider, to establish such a 4 financial system as important resources can be 5 stored in accordance with changes in equipments due 6 to future advances in skill and future allotment of 7 industries. The funds of Japan, Manchukuo and 8 China must, of course, depend upon the amount in 9 reserve, and so they must endeavor to increase and 10 utilize their reserves."

11 Turning to page 5, under the heading of 12 'Trade':

13 "Commercial-mindedness shall be put right, 14 and mutual relations between the three Powers that 15 form a whole will be established.

16 "The old theory of profit-taking commercialism 17 has to be overhauled in the new order of world economy, 18 that is to say, it must be replaced by the trade that 19 places production first; in other words, Japan, 20 Manchukuo and China, and all other territories in 21 the Co-Prosperity Sphere must establish such a mutual 22 trade relation as one body, as to obtain from all 23 countries, territories and economic spheres, the 24 resources which they respectively need for their 25 planned production, and to supply others with what

1 they want, and thus an agreement for special settle-2 ment will be necessary to promote the close and 3 smooth trade of resources between Japan, Manchukuo, 4 China and all other territories in the Co-Prosperity
5 Sphere."

1 Our next document is prosecution document
2 No. 1915-B, which consists of excerpts from the re-
3 cord of the interrogation of the accused HOSHINO.
4 The original record of the interrogation was admitted 5 for identification as exhibit 453, at page 5,119 of 6 the record.

7 I now tender prosecution document 1915-B
8 in evidence.

9 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
10 No. 1915-B will receive exhibit No. 2225.

11 (Whereupon, the document above re-
12 ferred to was marked prosecution's exhibit
13 No. 2225 and received in evidence.)

14 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNAME: I propose to read 15 all the extracts shown in this exhibit:

17 "Q Did the General Affairs Bureau during the 18 period from 1932 when you were in Manchukuo up to 19 1936 have to approve the sale of stocks or bonds by 20 private corporations?

21 "A We rendered assistance when necessary in the 22 sale of stocks and bonds. These were in connection 23 with the sale of shares of electric power companies, 24 telephone companies, and others of that description."

25 The same date, page 8:

1 "Q As member of the KONOYE second cabinet, you
2 were chairman of the Cabinet Planning Board?

3 "A Yes.

4 "Q After you became Chief of this planning 5 board, did you promulgate or make any economic plans 6 for Japan?

7 "A The board made rough plans to be determined 8 by the cabinet meeting as I said before.

9 "Q When did the cabinet first adopt a plan 10 that you had suggested covering the economic situa-11 tion in Japan?

12 "A November, 1940.

13 "Q Will you tell us just what that plan con-14 templated?

15 "A It was to form various companies in a given 16 industry into one association, one group, so that 17 they could develop their industry as one group.

18 "Q Under that plan was it contemplated that the 19 government would appoint the head of the group?

20 "A The government would nominate one member 21 from among the companies as the head.

22 "Q And did the government appoint the heads of 23 each of these so-called 'control associations'?

24 "A Yes, the government did appoint the head 25 usually the most senior member although there was no

1 legal procedure to appoint such a head.

2 "Q And did the man that the government appoint-3 ed at the head of each of these control associations 4 have the final say as to how things should be carried 5 on?

6 "A Within certain limits he ran the control 7 association, the limits being set by the government.

8 "Q Was the plan that was adopted by the cabinet 9 in November 1940 ever revised?

10 "A There were no particular modifications.

11 "Q Did that method of handling the business of 12 Japan continue from November until the end of the war?

13 "A In general, yes."

15 "Q In what way did the plan constitute a separa-
16 tion of capital from management?

17 "A This plan imposed certain new limitations 18 on capital, as to the management of the business, but 19 capital still retained certain prerogatives as to 20 hiring and firing and so on, so that you cannot say 21 that capital and management were separated.

22 "Q In what way did the men that the government 23 put in control at the head of these associations con-24 trol the method of development of their plants?

25 "A The plan does not take that into account,

1 but the Minister of Commerce and Industry would hold 2 particular conferences as the need arose with the 3 various control association heads. In relation to a 4 previous question - this rough plan did not go into 5 great detail about the management of the control
6 associations. It only set up the system of control 7 associations.

8 "Q Was the plan later revised so as to exercise 9 more control?

10 "A Gradually various laws and decrees were pro-11 mulgated to exercise this control as the need arose.

12 "Q In what way in exercising this control was 13 the distribution of war materials controlled by the 14 government among the members of these associations?

15 "A As a member of the cabinet planning board I 16 had no access to that - the matter was handled by the 17 Minister of Commerce and Industry. The Cabinet 18 planning board set up a grand policy so that the 19 various ministries acted more or less under their own 20 authority in carrying out this plan."

22 "Q Did you as minister without portfolio ever 23 attend the Imperial Conferences?

24 "A Yes, once.

25 "Q When?

1 "A October, I think, 1940.

2 "Q What was that conference about?

3 "A About the Japan-Germany alliance, I think.
4 I do not remember exactly.

5 "Q Was it the triple alliance between Japan, 6 Germany and Italy?

7 "A Yes.

8 "Q And was that Imperial Conference held for the 9 purpose of approving that triple alliance agreement?

10 "A I do not remember exactly. There was some 11 discussion of the treaty but there were other matters 12 like mobilization which were discussed.

13 "Q Did you enter into the discussion at that 14 meeting?

15 "A Yes.

16 "Q What did you say at the time you took part 17 in that conference?

18 "A I don't remember but I outlined the condition 19 of various industries at that time.

20 "Q Did you approve the tripartite agreement?

21 "A Well, it was settled at the cabinet meeting, 22 so naturally I did not oppose it."

24 "Q Did you attend the first meeting at KONOYE's 25 house of the Imperial Rule Assistance Association?

1 "A I do not understand.

2 "Q It was the first meeting of the Imperial Rule 3 Assistance Association and I understand it was held 4 at KONOYE's house or official residence.

5 "A Yes, I attended."

6 Page 25:

7 "Q Was there an Imperial Conference held in the 8 early part of December?

9 "A Yes, I think there was.

10 "Q On what date?

11 "A I don't remember exactly.

12 "Q Was it the first day of December?

13 "A About the 1st or 2nd day of December.

14 "Q What was under consideration at that meeting?

15 "A If the negotiations did not succeed during 16 the first part of December, there would be war.

17 "Q Was there a cabinet meeting held before 18 this Imperial Conference?

19 "A I think there was.

20 "Q Were all of the ministers present?

21 "A Yes.

22 "Q Were you personally at the cabinet meeting?

23 "A Yes, as secretary.

24 "Q Was it at this cabinet meeting that the de-25 termination to commence war if negotiations were not

1 completed in the early part of December was decided 2 upon?

3 "A Yes.

4 "Q Did you attend the Imperial Conference?

5 "A Yes.

6 "Q Was the emperor present at that conference?

7 "A Yes."

8 Page 27:

9 "Q Did you attend every cabinet meeting that 10 took place from the beginning of TOJO's cabinet until 11 after December 8, 1941?

12 "A Yes.

13 "Q When was the Privy Council's meeting held 14 in the Emperor's presence that declared war on the 15 United States - on what date?

16 "A On December 8th.

17 "Q At what time?

18 "A At about 9 o'clock.

19 "Q Did you attend it?

20 "A Yes.

21 "Q Were all of the cabinet members present and 22 were all of the Privy Council there?

23 "A Yes."

24 Page 28:

25 "Q What time of day did you say the meeting of

1 the Privy Council took place on December 8th?

2 "A At 9 o'clock in the morning.

3 "Q Was the Emperor present at that meeting?

4 "A Yes.

5 "Q So that the Privy Council and all members of 6 the cabinet including those without portfolio were 7 present at this meeting on December 8th at 9 o'clock
8 in the morning, and the Emperor was there?

9 "A Yes."

10 Pages 29 and 30:

11 "Q When was the formal declaration of war against 12 America made?

13 "A The foreign minister in consultation with 14 military authorities had fixed the time for delivering 15 the declaration of war. No one else knew anything 16 about this decision.

17 "Q I thought you said there could be no declara-18 tion of war without the approval of the Privy Council, 19 is that so?

20 "A Well, yes, for a formal declaration of war, 21 the approval of the Privy Council is necessary.

22 "Q Had they had any meeting of the Privy Council
23 and Cabinet prior to December 8th, at which that matter 24 was considered and decided?

31st of January, 1946, page 15:

1 "Q Did the General Affairs Bureau have anything
2 to do with the establishment of any of the industries
3 in Manchuria after you became Chairman of the Board, 4 I mean chief?
5

6 "A There are many cases in which the General
7 Affairs Bureau had connection with industries in Man-8 chukuo.

9 "Q Does that mean with the establishment of in-10 dustries?

11 "A Yes, in the establishment of industries - not 12 directly, of course.

13 "Q How were they connected with it?

14 "A The General Affairs Bureau was consulted in 15 many important matters concerning industry.

16 "Q Did the General Affairs Bureau interest
17 itself in trying to get capital invested in Manchukuo 18 for the purpose of developing it?

19 "A Yes."

20 11 February, 1946, pages 7, 8 and 9:

21 "Q Did the Cabinet take any action on the report 22 of this conference between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Hull
23 and Mr. NOMURA and Mr. KURUSU?

24 "A I believe the Cabinet got the impression that 25 the negotiation was not going to be carried through.

1 "Q At what meeting? When?

2 "A I do not recall exactly what Cabinet meeting 3 it was.

4 "Q Was there any special Cabinet meeting held 5 about that time?

6 "A I believe there was a Cabinet meeting in early 7 December concerning the negotiation.

8 "Q Why was it called?

9 "A I believe the special Cabinet meeting was 10 called because it got the impression that a treaty 11 would not be arrived at with the United States and in 12 the event that the treaty did not go through well what 13 steps they might take or would take.

14 "Q What steps did they decide to take if the 15 negotiations did not go along well?

16 "A That if the negotiation could not be made 17 then Japan would take free action.

18 "Q Was there any disagreement among the ministers 19 at the meeting about going to war with the United 20 States?

21 "A No."

22 Same date, pages 11, 12 and 14:

23 "Q When was the declaration of war submitted 24 to the Privy Council?

25 "A The morning of the 8th.

1 "Q And were you present at that meeting?

2 "A Yes.

3 "Q At the time of the meeting of the Privy 4 Council did you know whether or not Pearl Harbor had 5 been attacked?

6 "A Yes, I had heard.

7 "Q And did you hear it before the declaration
8 of war was approved by the Privy Council?

9 "A I believe that I had learned it.

10 "Q After the Privy Council had approved the 11 declaration of war did they send it to the Emperor?

12 "A Yes.

13 "Q And what did the Emperor do with it?

14 "A He signed it as he received this declaration 15 of war."

16 26 February 1946, pages 8, 9 and 10:

17 "Q I am advised, Mr. HOSHINO, that you were the 18 closest man in the Cabinet to General TOJO. How about 19 that?

20 "A As the Chief Secretary, I was the closest to 21 TOJO, however, I cannot say that I was the closest 22 adviser.

23 "Q When did you first know, Mr. HOSHINO, that 24 war had been determined upon by Japan with the United 25 States?

1 "A On the 26th or 27th of November I had heard
2 that a war with the United States was almost unavoidable.
3 It was stated that an ultimatum by the President of 4 the United States was received on the 26th and this 5 made it almost impossible to better American-Japanese 6 relations according to the Cabinet members.

7 "Q And who made the statement to the Cabinet
8 that this condition existed as of November 26, 1941?

9 "A I think Premier TOJO reported that to the 10 Cabinet.

11 "Q And was the full Cabinet in session at this 12 meeting?

13 "A I do not remember exactly, but I am quite 14 certain that they all attended and it took place, I 15 think, in the latter part of November or the first of 16 December.

17 "Q Who were the members of the Cabinet who were 18 present at this meeting at which Premier TOJO made 19 this statement?

20 "A I do not remember them all, but I am sure 21 they all were in attendance.

22 "Q Following this meeting at which this state-23 ment was made by Premier TOJO, Mr. HOSHINO, what 24 happened then?

25 "A Following that there was an Imperial Conference

1 in which the Chief of Staff of the Army and the Navy 2 were present as well as the various ministers.

3 "Q Who was the Chief of Staff of the Army
4 present at the Imperial Conference?

5 "A The Chief of Staff of the Army was SUGIYAMA
6 and the Chief of Staff of the Navy was NAGANO.

7 "Q Was any statement made at the Imperial Con-
8 ference by Premier TOJO or any one else in connection 9 with the probability of war with the United States or 10 the determination to embark upon war with the United 11 States?

12 "A I think TOJO did make a statement, however, I 13 do not recall as to what was said.

14 "Q In view of the importance of this Imperial 15 Conference, Mr. HOSHINO, can you not, from your re-16 collection, state in effect what was said, if not the 17 exact language?

18 "A I cannot say as to what was stated at that 19 time, but I think that he did infer that a war with 20 the United States was inevitable and, therefore, we 21 must make all necessary preparation.

22 "Q Is it not a fact that both the Chief of Staff
23 of the Army General SUGIYAMA and Admiral NAGANO
24 stated at this meeting that both the Army and the Navy 25 were preparing to attack the United States and had

1 made all plans to do so in preparation for war?

2 "A. I cannot recall as to what exactly was said, 3 however, I think he did say that preparation had 4 already been made.

5 "Q And when you say he, whom do you mean?

6 "A. I do not remember exactly, however, I think 7 both of these Chiefs of Staff made that statement.

8 "Q Was the Emperor present at this Imperial Con-9 ference?

10 "A. Yes, he was."

2 "Q Is it not a fact, Mr. HOSHINO, that upon 3 instructions of the Cabinet that you actually wrote 4 up the declaration of war and prepared the same as 5 Secretary of the Cabinet?

6 "A It is hard to state as to exactly who wrote 7 the document, however, being as it does come out
8 under the name of the Premier I did help compile part 9 of it."

The 1st of April, 1946, page 1:

10 11 "Q Mr. HOSHINO, when I interrogated you some 12 time ago you stated that you had written some part 13 of the declaration of war. That was correct, was it 14 not?

15 "A I cannot say I wrote the whole thing but 16 it was compiled by me.

17 "Q When you speak of the declaration of war, 18 Mr. HOSHINO, do you mean the note that was submitted 19 to the United States or the declaration of war that 20 was signed by the Emperor?

21 "A It is the Imperial Rescript and not the 22 note given to the United States on December 7."

23 Mr. Comyns Carr will now carry on the 24 presentation of the prosecution's case, if the Tri-25 bunal pleases.

1 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Comyns Carr.

2 MR. COMYNS CARR: If it please the Tribunal,
3 I now offer in evidence certain additional documents
4 to supplement the case against the accused HIROTA.
5 First, prosecution document No. 915, a statement 6 issued by him on the occasion of the withdrawal of 7 Japanese delegates from the London Naval Conference, 8 16 January, 1936, which I offer in evidence.

9 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

10 MR. COMYNS CARR: First of all, I should 11 offer the book itself, in which the document is 12 printed, for identification.

13 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution document
14 No. 915 will receive exhibit No. 2226 for identifi-
15 cation only; and the excerpt therefrom, bearing the 16 same document number, will receive exhibit No. 2226A.

17 (Whereupon, document No. 915 was 18 marked prosecution's exhibit No. 2226
19 for identification, and the excerpt there-
20 from was marked prosecution's exhibit No.
21 2226A and received in evidence.)

22 MR. COMYNS CARR: (Reading)

23 "It being the immutable policy of the 24 Japanese Government to contribute toward the mainten-25 ance and promotion of international peace, we gladly

1 participated in the present Naval Conference at 2 London.

3 "The aim of our Government at the conference 4 was to establish the security of national defense by 5 concluding a fair and equitable agreement on naval 6 disarmament, and simultaneously to lighten the tax 7 burden of the peoples concerned, promoting thereby 8 the peace and amicable intercourse among nations. In 9 order to realize this object, our delegates made a 10 proposal looking to a reduction of armaments which, 11 without impairing the sense of security of each Power 12 in its national defense, would make it difficult for 13 any Power to attack another but easy to defend it-14 self. For that purpose, our proposal provided for the 15 establishment of a common upper limit for all the 16 navies, to be fixed at the lowest possible level.
17 It also provided for the abolition of the armaments
18 of offensive nature, such as capital ships and air-19 craft carriers, and for a drastic reduction in the 20 first class cruisers. Thus we hoped to achieve a 21 thorough-going disarmament and to establish the 22 principle of non-menace and non-aggression among 23 nations.

24 "But, in spite of the earnest endeavours of 25 our delegates, these fair and reasonable basic claims

1 of our Government were not accepted by the other 2 Powers; and moreover, the earnest proposal of our 3 Government was also rejected, in which it was pro-
4 posed to conclude such agreements as might be pos-
5 sible at the conference, and to terminate the confer-6 ence in an amicable manner after making for the purp-7 ose of forestalling naval competition a joint declara-8 tion to the effect that the Powers concerned would 9 not enter upon an armament race. In the light of 10 these circumstances, it became unavoidable that our 11 delegates should withdraw from the conference.

12 "However, it is needless to say that our 13 Government, devoted to the principle of non-menace
14 and non-aggression, have not the slightest intention 15 of doing anything to stimulate an armament race, 16 irrespective of whether or not there exists a treaty 17 for disarmament. Furthermore, there is not the 18 slightest change in the cherished desire of our 19 Government to cooperate for the realization of 20 disarmament for the cause of world peace. It is our 21 fervent wish that all the Powers concerned will soon
22 come to appreciate the sincerity of our Government 23 in proposing a thorough-going limitation and reduction 24 in armament."

25 Having regard to the nature of the Japanese

1 proposals, it is our submission that these words 2 must have been uttered with the tongue in the 3 cheek.

4 Next, prosecution document 2946, a draft 5 by the Army of the Five Year Plan submitted to 6 HIROTA on 13 July, 1937 with a covering letter.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

8 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
9 No. 2946 will receive exhibit No. 2227.

10 (Whereupon, the document above re-
11 ferred to was marked prosecution's exhibit
12 No. 2227 and received in evidence.)

13 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Logan.

14 MR. LOGAN: If the Tribunal please, I
15 move to strike out the gratuitous remark of Mr.
16 Carr after he finished reading the document. If 17 he has any proof of what he said, let him offer it.

18 MR. COMYNS CARR: The proof of the nature
19 of the Japanese proposals is already in evidence 20 and has been fully dealt with by Naval witnesses.

21 THE PRESIDENT: What comment did Mr. Comyns
22 Carr make on the last document? I did not hear it.
23 I put the document aside. I read it ahead of him, 24 and I did not assume any contribution would be made 25 by him.

1 MR. COMYNS CARR: The comment I made, your 2 Honor, was that, having regard to the nature of the 3 Japanese proposals, it is the submission of the 4 prosecution that the words in the document must 5 have been uttered with the tongue in the cheek.
6 That is an inference which we ask the Tribunal 7 to draw from the evidence already given as to the 8 nature of the proposal.

9 THE PRESIDENT: It is not an explanation
10 of the document, really. The suggestion comes too 11 early for me, Mr. Carr. It will be open to you to 12 make it later. For the time being, the Tribunal 13 has decided to disregard the observation.

14 MR. COMYNS CARR: Now, exhibit 2227. The 15 draft itself does not differ materially from 16 exhibit 842 already in evidence, and I will not 17 read it. The point is to prove by the covering 18 letter on page 6, which I will read, that HIROTA, 19 as Foreign Minister, was a party to it.

20 (Reading) "To Mr. HIROTA, Koki, July 13, 21 1937.

22 "This report enclosed herewith is an ex-23 tract from the note shown to me confidentially by 24 the Army side. Every Ministry will set to make a 25 draft through this line. And, as soon as the

1 programs have been drafted, they should be submitted
2 to the Cabinet Planning Board (Kikakucho) for execu-3 tion. I am sure you may get a general idea of the 4 future administration of the country. Please keep 5 this report top secret.

6 "P. S. The national productive power of 7 the year 1936 shows an increase of 216.3 per cent
8 in comparison with the basic year 1931.

9 "Yours respectfully,

10 "Secretary

11 "AKIYAMA."

12 The accused KAYA was Finance Minister at 13 that date.

14 The last is prosecution document No. 1108
15 which I offer in evidence. First of all, the book 16 which I offer for identification.

17 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

18 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
19 No. 1108 will receive exhibit No. 2228 for identifi-
20 cation only; and the excerpt therefrom, bearing the 21 same document No., will receive exhibit No. 2228A.

22 (Whereupon, document No. 1108 was 23 marked prosecution's exhibit No. 2228 for 24 identification, and the excerpt therefrom 25 was marked prosecution's exhibit 2228A and received in evidence.)

1
2 MR. COMYNS CARR: It is an instruction
3 issued by HIROTA as Foreign Minister on some date 4 in 1938 as to the preferential treatment to be 5 given to Germany in North China.

6 (Reading) "As for the aforesaid German 7 proposal for economic cooperation in China, our 8 government intends, for the economic development of 9 China, to solicit foreign capital with which to 10 replenish, on one hand, the capital and goods 11 necessary for such development, and to contribute, 12 on the other hand, to the improvement of inter-13 national relations. This was already made clear in 14 the policy for the economic development of North 15 China, decided by the Cabinet meeting. Especially, 16 as regards the participation of Germany and Italy, 17 it will mean that special consideration is required
18 from the political point of view as well. However, 19 as a practical question, it is difficult for us to 20 reach a conclusive opinion, unless the general plan 21 for North China development is set up, and develop-22 ment companies and other business firms have been 23 established, thus enabling us to have some pros-24 pects for those enterprises and investments.

25 "However, if Germany, as already mentioned,

1 desires the establishment of general rights concern-
2 ing the economic development of North China before 3 getting into concrete problems, we regard it neces-
4 sary to make due correction /T.N. of the German 5 views/ at an early stage. Although we must give 6 Germany and Italy the greatest consideration as re-7 gards the economic development of North China, we 8 cannot allow them a position equal to us or even 9 inferior, if it gives them preference which would 10 threaten to cut off entirely the economic partici-
11 pation of England and America in the future.
12 Accordingly, I think the cooperation of Germany
13 and Italy in the economic development of North 14 China will be accomplished chiefly by Germany's 15 cooperative investment in various important indus-16 tries. The methods are:-

17 "(a) Investment in the Development Com-18 pany and its sub-companies (Provided that it does 19 not affect the managing rights of the business.)

20 "(b) Subscription of debentures.

21 "(c) Supply of machinery on credit or by 22 delivery of shares.

23 "(d) Joint management by Japan and 24 Germany, or by Japan, Germany and China, of some 25 kind of enterprise.

1 "Among the above methods, since (a) and (b) 2 will not be considered important by Germany for the 3 time being, (c) and (d) methods will be chiefly 4 adopted. As regards (c), we may have to depend 5 largely upon Germany for railroad and other trans-
6 portation materials, mining and iron manufacturing 7 machinery, and electrical machinery and materials, 8 etc. Concerning (d), we may ask Germany, for 9 example, to supply us with patent rights and lique-
10 faction machinery for coal liquefaction enterprises, 11 to be carried out by the joint management of Japan 12 and Germany or of Japan, Germany and China. The 13 Army, also, considers this entirely possible.
14 Further, in view of the necessity of taking into 15 consideration at this juncture the efforts made in 16 Germany by Foreign Minister Ribbentrop, Ambassador
17 TOGO will offer the following proposal at an approp-
18 riate opportunity: 'In view of the fact that Germ-
19 any has consistently shown a favourable attitude
20 towards Japan in the present incident, that the said 21 attitude of Germany will not only be continued in 22 the future but will be more and more strengthened, and 23 that the political and economic cooperation due to 24 the anti-Communist orientation of the two countries, 25 Japan and Germany, will become closer, the Imperial

1 Government, on the promise that Germany will approve
2 Japan's special position in China, will endeavor not 3 to put Germany in a position inferior to that of 4 other countries hereafter as far as Germany's 5 economic activities in North China are concerned.
6 Furthermore, in every case which may happen in the 7 future, Japan will try to give her the best pos-
8 sible preference.' Besides, as the said proposal
9 of Germany lays stress not only on her enterprises
10 in China, but also on securing and expanding her 11 trade in China, we have given instructions to 12 answer Germany to this effect, that 'We consider 13 that, in principle, both countries, Japan and 14 Germany, should stand equal in the Chinese market.
15 Therefore, we will strive to our utmost so that 16 both countries may enjoy equal treatment so far as 17 the Chinese Customs System is concerned. However, 18 as Japan actually is responsible for the mainten-19 ance of the currency system in North China, it will be 20 inevitable that some special position will accrue
21 to her. Be that as it may, in setting up any im-22 port and export system, Germany's interests will be 23 fully respected and will be given preference over 24 any third country.'"

1 Exhibits 2208-A, -B and -C, put in by 2 Colonel Woolworth as part of the case against UMEZU, 3 are also relevant to the case against HIROTA.

4 And that completes the prosecution case
5 against HIROTA.

6 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Higgins.

7 MR. HIGGINS: Mr. President, I offer for 8 identification IPS document No. 1505-E, which is 9 an address taken from the March 1939 issue of the 10 Tokyo Gazette, certified as to origin and authenticity 11 by prosecution's exhibit No. 448.

12 This address was delivered before the Diet 13 on 21 January 1939 by the accused Baron HIRANUMA, as 14 a statement of governmental policy, upon assuming 15 office as Prime Minister.

16 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

17 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's docu-
18 ment No. 1505-E will receive exhibit No. 2229 for 19 identification only, and the excerpt therefrom, bear-20 ing the same document number, will receive exhibit

22 (Whereupon, the document above
23 referred to was marked prosecution's ex-
24 hibit No. 2229 for identification, and 25 the excerpt therefrom was marked prose-

1 cution's exhibit No. 2229-A and received
2 in evidence.)

3 MR. HIGGINS: I read prosecution's exhibit
4 No. 2229-A.

5 "In regard to the China Affair upon which 6 both the Government and the people are concentrat-
7 ing their endeavours, there exists an immutable 8 policy, for which Imperial sanction was obtained by 9 the previous Cabinet, and in accordance with which 10 the necessary steps have been taken in various 11 directions. As the present Cabinet is, of course, 12 committed to the same policy, it is determined to 13 proceed at all costs to the achievement of the final 14 purpose. To lay the foundation of prosperity and 15 progress in East Asia through the political, 16 economic and cultural cooperation of Japan, Man-
17 choukuo and China with full mutual understanding 18 between the three countries, for the realization 19 of mutual helpfulness, neighbourly amity and 20 solidarity, is, needless to say, to manifest the 21 very spirit in which our nation was founded.
22 Therein lies Japan's national purpose, which alone 23 can insure the permanent peace of East Asia, and 24 which can contribute to the progress of the world.
25 "Obviously no lasting peace can be hoped

1 for unless Japan, Manchoukuo and China, the three 2 countries responsible for the stability of East 3 Asia, are speedily united in the realization of 4 the above-mentioned common objective - the establish-5 ment of a new order to replace the old. 'Overcome,' 6 said the Emperor MEIJI, 'the evil ways of the past,
7 and follow the just principles of nature.' Here 8 we have, I believe, what must be the basis of 9 government in our country. Here is the ideal which 10 was handed down from time immemorial by the Imperial 11 Ancestors, and in accordance with which all the 12 Imperial Successors have ruled the land. To 13 'follow the just principles of nature' means in 14 the last analysis to enable all entities to find 15 their own proper places, and therein lie also, 16 I believe, the essentials of government. And this 17 principle applies equally to internal politics and 18 international relations. The construction of the 19 new East Asiatic order should proceed on the basis 20 of this ideal.

21 "I hope the above intention of Japan will 22 be understood correctly by the Chinese so that they 23 may cooperate with us without the slightest appre-24 hension. Otherwise, the construction of the new 25 order would be impossible. As for those who fail

1 to understand to the end and persist even hereafter
2 in their opposition against Japan, we have no other 3 alternative than to exterminate them."

4 Mr. Tavenner will continue for the prose-5 cution.

6 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Tavenner.

7 MR. TAVENNER: May it please the Tribunal:
8 Prosecution's document No. 4043-H is a captured
9 German document. It is a telegram from the German 10 Foreign Minister to the German Ambassador in Tokyo, 11 under date of 28 May 1939, relating to the refusal 12 of the accused OSHIMA to carry out certain instructions 13 from his government. The War Minister at this time 14 was the accused ITAGAKI.

15 I offer it in evidence.

16 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

17 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's docu-
18 ment No. 4043-H will receive exhibit No. 2230.

19 (Whereupon, the document above
20 referred to was marked prosecution's ex-
21 hibit No. 2230 and receive in evidence.)

22 MR. TAVENNER: "Berlin, 28 May 1939.
23 Diplogerma. Tokyo. No. 174. Telegram in cipher
24 (Secret Cipher Procession).

25 "Exclusively for the Ambassador personally.

Re your telegrams No. 213 and 217.

1 "1. The formal communication made to you
2 20 May at the request of War Minister, General
3 MAJIRI, that the Foreign Minister there would have 4 us informed at the latest on Sunday, 21 May of the 5 positive new decision of the Japanese Cabinet 6 Conference has proved to be without effect. The 7 local Japanese Embassy has up to today not been in 8 a position to make any official communication at 9 all regarding the state of affairs.
10

11 "2. OSHIMA reported the following in 12 yesterday's strictly confidential and unofficial 13 conversation: He has received a telegram from 14 ARITA, according to which the Japanese Government 15 wishes to reserve entrance into a state of war in 16 case of European conflict. In a very energetic 17 telegram to ARITA OSHIMA has refused to pass this 18 point of view on to the German Government at all.
19 Thereupon the War Minister requested OSHIMA by 20 wire to hold off until later against ARITA in 21 order not to disturb the discussions among the 22 various factors in Tokyo. The Army is firmly 23 resolved to fight the matter out quickly and even 24 at risk of a cabinet overthrow.

"3. I request you without making use of

1 the aforementioned confidential communications of 2 OSHIMA's to make it clear to your authorities
3 that the absence of the communication formally 4 announced to you as well as of every other communi-5 cation has produced great astonishment in us and in 6 the Italiars. It is unavoidable that as a result
7 of this silence the Japanese attitude is now beginning
8 to be regarded with distrust. We can no longer 9 understand here what can be going on in Tokyo and for 10 what reasons the Japanese Government at this advanced 11 stage of the negotiations is still further heightened 12 by the attitude of the Japanese delegation at the 13 World Postal Congress in Buenos Aires.

14 G.F.M.

15 /German Foreign Minister/"

16 THE PRESIDENT: Counsel SHIMANOUCI.

17 MR. SHIMANOUCI: I respectfully call the 18 Tribunal's attention to the following two points 19 regarding this document:

20 Mr. Tavenner has just said that the accused 21 OSHIMA refused to convey instructions from the 22 Japanese government to the German government, but a 23 prosecution document introduced last October makes 24 it clear that these instructions were delivered to 25 the German government soon after.

1 Second, I wish to call the Tribunal's
2 attention to the fact that German documents can 3 not be regarded as accurate. For instance, in the 4 beginning of the document just presented by Mr.
5 Tavenner, we find the words "War Minister MAJIRI."
6 There has never been a War Minister called MAJIRI
7 in Japan, nor has there ever been a War Minister 8 whose name even slightly resembles such a name.

9 Mr. Tavenner himself has just said that the 10 War Minister at the time was General ITAGAKI.

11 For these reasons I respectfully call the 12 Tribunal's attention to the value of captured German 13 documents -- the dubious value.

14 THE PRESIDENT: Your representations come 15 too early. All the matters you mention are for 16 proof by the defense later in the course of their 17 case. It is time you understood that.

1 MR. TAVENNER: I desire to offer in evi-
2 dence prosecution's document 1918C. It is an 3 additional excerpt from exhibit 2178.

4 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual
5 terms.

6 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's docu-
7 ment No. 1918C --

8 MR. BROOKS: Just a minute. We have not 9 been served with that, if your Honor please -- what 10 we asked for. It is not on the front of this list 11 and therefore we do not have it with us. We don't 12 know how to check against it.

13 THE PRESIDENT: A similar objection was 14 raised recently within the last few days without 15 justification, Captain Brooks, it must be observed.

16 MR. TAVENNER: I think if counsel will 17 permit, and the Court will permit, my completed 18 description of the document, it will be apparent 19 that the 24-hour rule does not apply as to this.
20 However, we did make distribution of this document
21 yesterday. My recollection is that three o'clock 22 was the exact hour in which distribution was made.

23 THE PRESIDENT: For the time being we have 24 to take your word for it, Mr. Tavenner.

25 MR. TAVENNER: Completing the description

1 of the document --

2 MR. SHINAMOUCHI: Is this a document concern-
3 ing the accused OSHIMA?

4 MR. TAVENNER: No, it speaks for itself.
5 If you will let me describe it you will see what it 6 is.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Do not come to the lecturn
8 to find out those things. Ask the prosecution 9 independently.

10 MR. TAVENNER: As I started to state, this 11 is an additional excerpt from exhibit 2178, Proceed-12 ings of Tokyo Court of Appeals, and is offered for 13 the purpose of showing that exhibit 2178B, hereto-14 fore read in evidence, was filed in the record of 15 the Tokyo Court of Appeals by counsel for the accused 16 OKAWA. This document is supported by the affidavit
17 of the translator that this document, and also ex-18 hibit 2178B, are true and accurate translations of 19 the record of this proceeding, which has been filed 20 for identification as exhibit 2178.

21 MR. BROOKS: If the Court please, I ask
22 the benefit of the 24-hour rule. If this was served, 23 as the prosecution says, at three o'clock yesterday, 24 our services wouldn't have it in our baskets this 25

1 morning. I haven't had a chance to check it, and I
2 think it is important to check it.

3 MR. TAVENNER: I would like to call the 4 Tribunal's attention to our position, that the 24-5 hour rule is probably not applicable to a situation
6 of this kind where the question arose in connection 7 with the introduction of the document which was 8 read and which, I take it, the Tribunal would have 9 permitted me to have pointed out at the moment had 10 I been able to put my finger upon it. However, I 11 have given all the notice it was possible to give 12 them and as full a notice as was possible to give 13 them.

14 MR. BROOKS: The Court can see I haven't 15 even had a chance to know if the prosecution is 16 correct in that statement without study. I will 17 try my best over the noon hour to go into this 18 matter so that he may raise it this afternoon, if 19 you will defer it. I would like to be able to point 20 out at the time anything that is possible.

21 THE PRESIDENT: We can waive our own rules 22 in special circumstances, that is to say, where the 23 defense are not prejudiced and where nothing would 24 result but delay if we did not waive the rule.
25 Nothing will result here but delay. The case might

1 be closed in the next hour but for this; and if your 2 objection were upheld, fancy delaying the closing 3 of the prosecution's case for no purpose at all,
4 just for bare compliance with the rule.

5 MR. BROOKS: If the Tribunal please, my 6 objection is not based on mere compliance with the 7 rule -- failure to comply. If this document had 8 been called to my attention, because the prosecu-
9 tor knew he was serving it less than the 24-hour
10 period, I would have gone out of my way and stayed 11 up any period of time last night to study it and be 12 prepared to offer my cooperation this morning. But 13 I have the right --

14 THE PRESIDENT: There is no possibility of 15 prejudice to the defense.

16 MR. BROOKS: That I cannot say, your Honor, 17 because I haven't studied it, and it is a position
18 I don't want to take -- not make a snap judgment 19 on.

20 THE PRESIDENT: Well, it is possible to deny
21 anything, even the obvious. These rules do not 22 obtain for the protection of the defendants in any 23 other court but this and they apply only except as 24 far as we otherwise order, as the rules expressly

1 state.

2 The document is admitted on the usual terms.

3 MR. TAVENNER: I would like to state that 4 we were not requesting the waiving of any rule.

5 It was our position that the rule would probably 6 not apply where the situation arose as this did.

7 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's docu-
8 ment 1918C, which is an excerpt from court exhibit 9 No. 2178 for identification only, is given exhibit
10 No. 2231.

11 (Whereupon, the document referred to 12 above was marked prosecution's exhibit 2231 13 and received in evidence.)

14 MR. TAVENNER: I will read exhibit 2231:

15 "Page 1288.

16 "A Summary of Argument at the Court of 17 Appeals Trial of OKAWA, SHUMEI (II)

18 "To KIIYOSE, ICHIRO.

19 "Page 1310, line 7.

20 "I have caused the Manchurian Railroad 21 Investigation Bureau to investigate and report the 22 OKAWA'S participation in the present question. I 23 am now going to mention only the cardinal points, 24 and the rest I ask you to refer to the document
25 itself. I shall read the headings.

1 "1. His contribution in separating the 2 East Asia Economic Research Bureau from the South
3 Manchuria Railway Co.

4 "2. His exertions in reforming the sub-
5 stance of the Bureau after the separation.

6 "3. Research work.

7 "4. Establishment of policies toward Man-8 churia and stimulating, guiding and unifying of the 9 people's opinion.

10 "5. His activities after the incident.

11 "6. His contributions in establishing 12 Manchukuo.

13 "The above are the items mentioned. But 14 please keep in mind that this was not investigated 15 by myself, that is, this is the authentic investiga-16 tion made by the Research Bureau ***."

17 I will not read the affidavit attached 18 thereto.

19 THE PRESIDENT: We will recess now for 20 fifteen minutes.

21 (Whereupon, at 1045 a recess was 22 taken until 1100, after which the proceedings 23 were resumed as follows:)

1 MARSHAL OF THE COURT: The International
2 Military Tribunal for the Far East is now resumed.

3 MR. TAVENNER: If it please the Tribunal,
4 I now desire to read in evidence a part of docu-5 ment No. 1908B, heretofore filed as exhibit 2177A, which 6 is Minutes of the Third Trial of OKAWA. The part I 7 desire to read is as follows: "The below mentioned 8 counsels for the defense were present." I will read 9 only the name of the one concerned: KIYOSE, Ichiro.

10 THE PRESIDENT: What is the point in reading
11 that? We accept him as counsel here.

12 MR. TAVENNER: I have just shown by the 13 record that KIYOSE, Ichiro filed this paper on behalf
14 of OKAWA. This connects him as the counsel for OKAWA.

15 THE PRESIDENT: I still fail to see the 16 significance of it.

17 MR. BROOKS: If the Tribunal please, in 18 reference to exhibit 2231 the pages 1310 of this do 19 not, in my mind in the examination I have made in the 20 last fifteen minutes, I can't find where that is 21 connected with the documents which the Court has 22 asked for to the matter which was in issue. This 23 appears to be a matter that was put in in rebuttal
24 and to clear up certain evidence that was presented 25 as far as I can see at this time. I want to call it

1 to the Court's attention for its consideration and 2 study.

3 MR. TAVENNER: We introduce in evidence IPS
4 document 685A as exhibit 2182A, constituting excerpts 5 from the book entitled "The Establishment of Order in 6 Greater East Asia." The certificate did not include 7 the date of publication of this book. I desire, there-8 fore, to offer in the form of a correction to the 9 certificate the affidavit of the translator showing 10 that there appears on the flyleaf of the said book the 11 statement "Published August 25, 1943," and that the 12 Court direct the clerk to attach this affidavit to 13 exhibit 2182A.

14 THE PRESIDENT: We direct accordingly.

15 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution document
16 685 will be attached to Court exhibit No. 2182A
17 according to order of the Court.

18 MR. TAVENNER: Mr. McKinney will now address
19 the Court.

20 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. McKinney.

21 MR. McKINNEY: If it pleases the Tribunal, 22 the prosecution has further documentary evidence to 23 offer against the defendant Toshio SHIRATORI. Two 24 of these documents were written by the defendant, 25 published and distributed to the general public in

1 Japan. These documents prove that the defendant was 2 not satisfied with his position as a career diplomat
3 but desired to soar to a much higher level, in fact
4 to become a leader in establishing the Greater East
5 Asia Co-Prosperity Sphere. He was in favor of wars 6 of aggression, expansion, and conquest, and by his 7 writings attempted to convert the Japanese public to 8 accept and adopt his views.

9 I now offer in evidence International Prosecution 10 Section document No. 4095 which is a telegram from 11 Mackensen to the Foreign Ministry in Berlin dated 12 September 2, 1939, in regard to SHIRATORI's recall
13 from his post as Ambassador to Rome, and conferences 14 with SHIRATORI in which he, SHIRATORI, promised to 15 work in Tokyo in furtherance of the closer collaboration
16 of the Axis Powers. This document also contains a 17 memorandum by von Plessen about a conference with the 18 defendant SHIRATORI in which SHIRATORI promises to 19 work for an alliance of Japan with Germany and Italy.
20 He also discusses his reluctance to present the 21 Japanese protest against the non-aggression pact entered 22 into between Germany and Russia and expressed his view 23 that Japan should enter into a like treaty, and among 24 other things he discusses a general war.

25 THE PRESIDENT: That is a rather lengthy

1 explanation. Admitted on the usual terms.

2 MR. CAUDLE: If it please the Tribunal, I
3 make a motion to have that stricken. I think the 4 document ~~is~~ the best evidence. It speaks for itself.

5 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution document
6 No. 4095 will receive exhibit No. 2232.

7 (Whereupon, the document above re-
8 ferred to was marked prosecution's exhibit
9 No. 2232 and received in evidence.)

10 MR. McKINNEY: I will now read exhibit
11 2232:

12 "Rome, 2 September 1939. Foreign Berlin.

13 "Quite Secret. For German Foreign Minister.

14 "No. 404 of 2 September.

15 "Japanese Ambassador visited me today to 16 inform me that he had now received his expected re-17 call. Expects to depart in about three weeks would 18 particularly welcome /opportunity/ to have detailed 19 talk with German Foreign Minister on homeward trip 20 which he may take via Moscow. He seemed to be of the 21 opinion that with a new Japanese Cabinet there was a 22 well-founded chance for successful continuation of 23 the stalled further rapprochement with the Axis Powers.
24 For this very purpose of being able personally to work 25 more effectively than was possible from Rome he was

1 going to Tokyo. Ambassador mentioned further that 2 opinion was growing in Japan for a certain settlement 3 with Russia which, if carried through in stages and 4 via economic conversations, might eventuate in a non-5 aggression pact. Question was for us, too, of consider-6 able significance, for a Japan freed from a Russian 7 threat was in a position to reduce a possible tendency
8 of the United States to intervene in Europe. Ambassador 9 remarked finally that the ill feeling against us after 10 conclusion of the German-Russian Non-Aggression Pact
11 had improved considerably with the Cabinet change.

12 Signed: "Mackensen."

13 "ROME, 4 September 1939 Secret!"

14 "Note."

15 "After previous appointment by telephone I 16 visited the local Japanese Ambassador today. After 17 Mr. SHIRATORI, referring to his conversation with the 18 Ambassador on 2 September, had told me why he wished 19 to speak to me, he stated in the course of the conversa-20 tion -- which lasted a good half hour -- approximately 21 the following:

22 "As is known to me, the conclusion of the 23 German-Russian Non-Aggression Pact came as a severe 24 blow and made a great sensation in Japan. The friends
25 of Germany had since then been laboring to counteract

1 this effect. He himself, who belongs to this circle,
2 had been trying ever so long to induce the Japanese
3 Government to conclude an alliance with us (and pre-4 sumably also with Italy). This was the aim of his 5 office here. Since this aim was not attained, he 6 requested recall and was now returning to Japan, for 7 he believes he can be of more use in the aforesaid 8 direction there than here.

9 "Mr. SHIRATORI went on to say /these words 10 crossed through in original/ the German Foreign 11 Minister von Ribbentrop proposed to him during his 12 (SHIRATORI's) presence in Berlin on the occasion of 13 the Fuehrer's birthday that Japan should enter into a 14 closer alliance relationship with Germany. He sent 15 this proposal on to Tokyo at the time without, however, 16 receiving a reply from there. When he again saw the 17 German Foreign Minister 16 June, the latter told him 18 Germany would now conclude a non-aggression pact with 19 Russia, since Japan had not agreed to our proposals.
20 He reported this to Tokyo, too. The Japanese
21 Ambassador in Berlin, OSHIMA, who as a military man
22 understands naught of these matters, reported to Japan 23 at the time that it was out of the question that 24 Germany would conclude a pact with Russia. The Tokyo
25 Government believed the German Foreign Minister

1 /von Ribbentrop crossed through/ had only 'bluffed'.
2 It had also spread this around Tokyo with the addition 3 that he (SHIRATORI) and OSHIMA had been led around by 4 the nose. Two months had passed without Tokyo's answer-5 ing him (SHIRATORI) and finally we had concluded the 6 pact with Russia. Thereupon the Japanese Government 7 had resigned and he had put in four times for recall 8 until it was finally accepted.

9 "As for the supposed Japanese protest against 10 the German-Russian Non-Aggression Pact, Mr. SHIRATORI 11 told me OSHIMA had doubtless received instructions to 12 protest. He (SHIRATORI) had been informed thereof at 13 the same time. He had then got in touch with the 14 Japanese Embassy in Berlin by telephone in order to 15 stop the protest action if possible. Some official -- 16 the embassy counselor, if I am not mistaken -- told 17 him that OSHIMA had already gone to the Foreign Office.
18 State Secretary von Weizsacker did not accept the pro-
19 test there. On his return to the Embassy OSHIMA found 20 the news of his (SHIRATORI's) telephone call and then 21 reported to Tokyo that he considered a protest inopportu-22 tune. In spite of this he received instructions from 23 Tokyo to carry out the step. This has, however, not 24 yet taken place.

1 "Concerning the present state of Japanese-
2 Russian relations (here I come to the most important
3 part of the conversation) Mr. SHIRATORI informed me 4 the Japanese Ambassador in Moscow had received in-5 structions a few days ago to make the following pro-
6 posals to the Russian Government:

7 "1. To settle by diplomatic means the 8 dispute on the border between Mongolia and Manchoukuo, 9 where for a considerable time a regular battle has 10 been in progress;

11 "2. To appoint a commission for the settle-12 ment of the border problems there in general;

13 "3. To conclude a trade treaty. If in the 14 course of the discussions of the trade treaty Russia 15 should make known her desire to conclude a non-16 aggression pact with Japan, Ambassador TOGO should 17 enquire first whether Russia were disposed to deny 18 help to Chiang Kai-Shek.

19 "He (SHIRATORI) does not consider these in-20 structions to the Ambassador in Moscow fortunate, even 21 /deems them/ dangerous. Russia, indeed, had never of 22 her own accord proposed a non-aggression pact. The 23 proposal for the German-Russian Non-Aggression Pact, 24 too, had originated with us. In his opinion, the only 25 way to secure a non-aggression pact with Russia --

1 which he also considered highly desirable -- was with 2 Germany's mediation. He had therefore proposed to 3 General OSHIMA, on his own, without instructions from 4 Tokyo, to request Germany's good offices. All this 5 had taken place a few days earlier. General OSHIMA
6 had not yet been able to see the German Foreign Min-
7 ister, since he /GFM/ had had no time to receive him
8 before his departure for the front where he had gone
9 with the Fuehrer. The Fuehrer had received General
10 OSHIMA before his departure, but that was only a matter
11 of a very short visit during which the Fuehrer de-12 clared Germany wished to maintain the old, friendly
13 relations with Japan, but during which OSHIMA had no
14 opportunity to broach the question of German mediation
15 between Japan and Russia. He (OSHIMA) wished to attempt 16 to speak to the German Foreign Minister after his 17 return to Berlin.

18 "Regarding these latest developments Berlin
19 was not yet officially informed. He (SHIRATORI) wanted 20 to keep us au courant here and considered it appropriate 21 that we inform Berlin.

22 "To a remark from me that he had, so far as 23 I understood it, the wish to speak to the German For-24 eign Minister on his return trip to Japan Mr. SHIRATORI 25 replied that his travel plans were not yet definite.

1 He would presumably return to Japan via Scandinavia
2 and America and would of course be happy to talk to 3 the German Foreign Minister in case the latter wished 4 it. I got the impression that Mr. SHIRATORI did not 5 wish to ask for a conference on his own initiative, 6 so to speak, probably out of regard for General OSHIMA.
7 He expressed the view that the latter was to be found 8 in Berlin.

9 "In the course of the conversation Ambassador 10 SHIRATORI mentioned that in connection with the Anti-11 Comintern Pact a secret accord was concluded between 12 Germany and Japan to the effect that the two countries
13 were not to conclude a non-aggression pact with Russia.
14 The whole situation had since then completely altered 15 through the developments in Europe and no one could 16 demand from any country that it commit suicide for a 17 treaty's sake. At the time in question Russia appeared 18 the chief enemy to us as well as to Japan. For both 19 countries, however, (as a further development after the 20 Tientsin Incident) England had now become the chief 21 enemy, who absolutely has to be beaten. The advantage, 22 to us also, of a cleansing or an amelioration of Russian-23 Japanese relations was self-evident, for America would 24 in this case decide with much greater difficulty to 25 intervene in the present conflict. The goal of Japanese

1 policy in China remains, now as then, the establishing 2 of a new order there, with which was linked the expul-
3 sion of England from China. In order to attain this 4 goal Japan was hoping for financial help from America.

5 "We then came to speak of the present conflict.
6 Mr. SHIRATORI believed that after the overpowering of 7 Poland the opportunity of an understanding with France
8 and England might present itself. Germany and Italy
9 were not at present in a position, and France and Eng-10 land were not disposed, to wage a war on a truly large 11 scale. If it should come to a general conflict into 12 which Italy, the United States, Russia and Japan would 13 then necessarily be drawn, it would simply be a catas-14 trophe whose extent could not be conceived.

15 "In reply to a question of Mr. SHIRATORI's as 16 to Italy's attitude, I strongly emphasized that Italy 17 was proceeding in closest accord with us and that her 18 attitude corresponded to our intentions in every respect.
19 Signed Plessen."

20 I now offer in evidence International Prosecu-
21 tion document No. 2427, which is an article written 22 by the defendant SHIRATORI, entitled "Make this Man-23 kind's Last War" published in the Magazine of Today, 24 (Gendai) dated 1 June 1942, wherein he pictured Japan
25 as a super-race with a divine mission to rule the world.

1 He predicts as of June 1942 inevitable victory for 2 the European Axis, but intimates that even they must 3 eventually come under the sovereignty of Japan.

4 MR. CAUDLE: I still enter a motion that it
5 be stricken. I think the article will speak for itself.

6 I would also like to call to the attention of 7 the Tribunal that on each page of this document, both 8 at the top and at the bottom there appears the word 9 "Confidential" which indicates the article might have 10 been of some secret nature. However, Mr. McKinney 11 has explained it was published in a magazine, as appears 12 on the top part of the first page and also on the cer-13 tificate. I thought it might be best to call it to 14 your attention.

15 THE PRESIDENT: If Mr. McKinney proposes to 16 read the whole document, the explanation, perhaps, is 17 not too lengthy. Nothing turns on the use of the word 18 "Confidential."

19 The document is admitted on the usual terms.

20 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
21 No. 2427 will receive exhibit No. 2233 for identifica-
22 tion only, and the excerpts therefrom will receive 23 exhibit No. 2233-A.

24 (Whereupon, the document above re-
25 ferred to was marked prosecution's exhibit

1 No. 2233 for identification, the excerpts
2 therefrom being marked prosecution's exhibit
3 No. 2233-A and received in evidence.)

4 MR. McKINNEY: (Reading) "MAKE THIS MANKIND'S
5 LAST WAR. SHIRATORI Toshio, Former Foreign Office
6 Adviser and Ambassador to Italy, in Magazine of Today
7 (Gendai) 1 June 1942.

8 "Taking a general view of the present war
9 situation, we can not only say that the Greater East 10 Asia War is progressing most satisfactorily, but also 11 that the European War is going very well for the Axis 12 nations. It is now simply a matter of time before the 13 malign influence of the United States and Great Britain
14 will be expelled from the territories of Greater East 15 Asia, and Chungking, now gasping her last breath, will 16 no doubt capitulate soon. On the other side of the 17 world, the Axis armies of Germany and Italy can be 18 expected to achieve supremacy in Europe this year.
19 Even the insatiable British Empire must expect her 20 inevitable doom within the following year at the latest.
21 The so-called 'Old Powers' of the world will in all 22 probability flee to the American continent, which they 23 plan to use as a base for their final resistance.
24 Meanwhile America, rich in resources, protected by 25 the Atlantic and the Pacific, is desperately expanding

1 her armaments. Thus if we are to bring her completely 2 to her knees, we will need a considerable amount of 3 time. It is for this reason that everyone predicts
4 a long war. Long war though it may be, with the fall 5 of Britain armed hostilities will wane and become 6 chiefly a series of delaying actions, subsequently de-7 veloping into economic and ideological warfare. There-8 fore the question becomes: How much force can the 9 Allied Nations bring to bear upon the Axis? In other 10 words, how great is America's internal strength? On 11 the answer to this will depend the outcome of a long 12 war.

1 "In studying the war from this point of 2 view, one can only conclude that the Axis enjoys a
3 decided advantage. The internal structure of Germany
4 and Italy, already tested through many years, is 5 sounder than ever. Although the strength of these 6 two nations has been sapped in many respects by the 7 war, their successes have given them more than 8 enough in the way of resources. This means that 9 the remainder of their struggle should be considerably 10 easier. As for Japan, her internal unity and the 11 morale of her people are, needless to say, unmatched 12 by any other nation in the world. Furthermore, in 13 the matter of resources, she has the vast and rich 14 territories of Greater East Asia at her disposal.
15 If she progressively develops this source, she need 16 have no concern on this score regardless of how long 17 the war may last. Japan's might will become ever 18 greater, her morale ever higher.

19 "In contrast, what will be the future
20 developments in America's internal conditions? If we 21 study her present trends we see that America, as has 22 ever been the case, is a nation following an irre-
23 sponsible policy, a nation hardly deserving to be 24 called a 'nation' in the true sense of the word. In 25 times of peace and normalcy her people are content,

1 but under the duress of modern war their strength
2 for resistance is feeble indeed. Today, America's 3 finances are actually on the verge of bankruptcy.
4 Not even the cleverest manipulation by the most able 5 financial experts can extricate her from this condi-
6 tion. Even should the war end today, no makeshift 7 measures could be devised which could save her from 8 bankruptcy. To put it mildly, with her budget ranging 9 into astronomical figures, the burden on her people 10 can only increase, her debt grow larger, and her 11 standard of living become correspondingly lower. In 12 a situation where America has both of her oceans
13 blockaded, and finds herself cut off from the rest 14 of the world with her supply of critical materials 15 gradually diminishing, her leaders will be prone to 16 lose whatever confidence they have in their ability 17 to continue the war for any lengthy period. There 18 is no longer any doubt whatsoever that an internal 19 collapse is inevitable. In this light, even should 20 the 'old powers' of the world establish themselves
21 behind the walls of America, their power to resist
22 will be inconsequential. The Axis nations have only 23 to continue their steady application of pressure, and 24 calmly wait for America to bring about her own destruc-25 tion.

1 "Thus, although the consensus of opinion
2 tends to favor a long war, the above factors justify 3 the belief that the war will not last too long. If 4 the present war were anything like wars in the past -- 5 merely a clash of material interests -- peace negotia-
6 tions could be commenced immediately upon the enemy's 7 capitulation, and with this all armed hostilities
8 should cease. But this war is 'mankind's last war' -- 9 a war to end all wars -- whose objective is the 10 complete eradication of the old Anglo-American world
11 policy, and the establishment of an idealistic world
12 based on a new policy. Any makeshift variety of peace 13 is unthinkable. Moreover, between the old order and 14 the Axis, there are no grounds upon which a compromise 15 could be considered. For these reasons, the war to 16 establish world order and peace will inevitably require 17 a considerable amount of time.

18 "Section 2

19 "The immediate objective is to repulse and 20 destroy the enemy and to gain the final victory.
21 Victory alone, however, does not insure the war's end.
22 Only when we have completely realized all our new 23 undertakings along with victory can we rejoice in triumph.

24 "Every citizen accepts the brilliant successes
25 and the heroic efforts of the Imperial armed forces

1 with gratitude and praise. We need not harbor any 2 fear of our armed forces letting us down. Before 3 us, who shoulder the responsibility of exploitation, 4 still lies the important portion of the task. It will 5 demand from us the utmost in effort. We cannot forget 6 that, aside from the important duty of producing and 7 supplying, directly or indirectly, the materials neces-8 sary to war, we have the heavy responsibility of 9 establishing the New World Order.

10 "Though the words 'New World Order' have been 11 heard frequently enough, it seems that their exact
12 meaning has yet to be authoritatively explained. Up 13 to now it has been generally chorused that the New 14 World Order based on totalitarianism must be introduced 15 in the place of the Anglo-American individualism, but 16 the outbreak of the Greater East Asia War has made 17 this inadequate. The new Italo-German Order in place 18 of the old Anglo-American Order explains only the 19 character of the War in Europe. That Italo-German 20 political principles and economic systems are far 21 superior to those of Anglo-American and are extremely 22 close to Japan's Nationalism, we will for the moment
23 agree. Yet to make this war the war to end all wars, 24 the Italo-German totalitarian ideals in themselves do 25 not provide an adequate foundation. With vast economic

1 spheres in Europe, the American and Greater East Asia
2 existing and opposing each other in the future world, 3 can a permanent peace on this earth be guaranteed?
4 Even though this is a great step forward when compared 5 to the world of the past, we must conclude that that 6 is still far from perfect. There is an order in all 7 things. First to establish the Greater East Asia 8 Sphere, then to strive for its co-prosperity with the 9 European-American economic sphere, is certainly a 10 logical procedure. If there is no other way out, this 11 set-up can be considered temporarily satisfactory.
12 However, an ideal situation will require even more 13 than this.

14 "Section 3

15 "At this point we must re-examine our national 16 polity. KOKUTAI MEICHO (Clarification of Japanese 17 National Polity) is a phrase that has been quoted in 18 relation only to Japan proper, and used in a very 19 limited sense. The MEIJI Restoration, which overthrew 20 the TOKUGAWA Shogunate, was introduced, as to be 21 expected, by KOKUTAI MEICHO. The present members of 22 the faction supporting 'KOKUTAI MEICHO' reason that, 23 since in the Japan of today there exists a kind of 24 force quite similar to the TOKUGAWA Shogunate, such a 25 force must be eradicated by the clarification of 1 national polity.

2 "If such a force does exist within Japan, it
3 must be eradicated. However, in the SHOWA Restoration, 4 this force does not exist within the nation. It comes 5 from the outside. The American-Anglo Jewish influence 6 is this force. To preach renaissance at this time will 7 only invite public censure, since it is evident that 8 those who preach it do not fully understand the national 9 structure of Japan.

10 "If the Ancient Chronicle (KOJIKI) and the 11 Nippon Annals (NIPPON SHOKI) are correctly interpreted 12 and understood, you will probably be able to realize 13 that the rule of the Sun Goddess AMATERASU OMIKAMI was 14 not restricted to the narrow islands of the Japanese 15 Archipelago. Her direct descendants, the Emperors, 16 who are the incarnation of God, extended their August 17 Virtues not only to the Japanese nation and the Japanese 18 people but to the universe. The Emperor is deeply con-19 cerned about the world for the sake of humanity. He 20 said in his Imperial Rescript at the conclusion of 21 the Axis Agreement, 'The world shall be united', and 22 again, 'Each nation shall have its place in the Sun and 23 all human beings shall live in peace.'

24 "We must thoroughly clarify the origin of 25 Japan, the true meaning of the descent to earth of

1 the descendants of the Sun-Goddess, and the true
2 nature of the Emperor, the incarnation of God.

3 "Emperor JIMMU, prior to his departure on a 4 expedition to subjugate Eastern Japan, said, 'Since 5 the descent of Prince NINIGI about 1,792,470 years
6 ago, we have unobtrusively lived in Western Japan, 7 and have there, developed our culture and promoted
8 justice, etc.'. Since then, for a period of 2,600
9 years, the history of Japan shows that she has un-10 obtrusively developed her culture and promoted justice
11 only within the East Asia Sphere.

12 "In keeping with divine policy, the authority 13 of the Emperor has been restrained while Japan has 14 fully absorbed foreign culture. Throughout this 15 time, she has been earnestly awaiting the fulfillment 16 of her destiny.

17 "If a philosophic view is taken of world 18 conditions today, it is evident that the time for that 19 fulfillment has come. This Holy War can be said to be 20 something greater than the Eastern Expedition of Emperor 21 JIMMU, that is, this is the prelude to the opening of 22 the Rock Cave. (TN: The opening of the Rock Cave is 23 an allusion taken from Japanese mythology. According 24 to the legendary account, the Sun Goddess hid in a 25 cave after being insulted by her brother. This plunged

1 the whole world into darkness and the evil deities 2 became active. When she was finally persuaded to 3 come out of the cave by the good deities the universe 4 was again enlightened. The modern analogy is that 5 the world is again in darkness, and Japan's mission is 6 to bring light once more to a world overcome with evil.) 7 If the Japanese polity is fully interpreted, this is 8 the only possible conclusion.

9 "Today, for this reason, our national polity
10 should be clarified and shown to the world. I firmly 11 believe that the time has come to advocate permanent 12 world peace and world co-prosperity.

13 "This is the real purpose of the present 14 war -- the basic idea behind the establishment of the 15 New Order. It is the mission of the Japanese people.
16 KOKUTAI MEICHO today is the motivating force of World
17 Restoration.

18 "With this stupendous task confronting the 19 Japanese people, it should be clear to you how you 20 must be prepared to meet any internal or external 21 emergency. It is undoubtedly necessary to undertake 22 a complete reform of our national polity. However, 23 the foreign materialistic reforms of the past cannot 24 accomplish this purpose. Rather, they tend to obscure 25 the national polity.

1 "Section 4

2 "In the past, I have resided in foreign 3 countries for a long time and have associated with 4 all classes of people -- intelligentsia, proletariat, 5 students, etc. -- and I have found the Japanese to 6 be superior to all foreigners. Physical characteristics 7 such as flat nose and yellow skin matter little, since 8 these are due to the influences of weather, custom and 9 food. They naturally cannot be taken as standards.
10 The value of man lies in his soul. The soul is 11 invisible, but it is in evidence whenever a crisis 12 occurs. On the battle field, where risk of life is 13 great, the existence of the soul is especially evident.
14 In this war, the Japanese spirit has been thoroughly 15 displayed everywhere.

16 "Through numerous praiseworthy deeds and 17 miracles on the field of battle and the homefront the 18 Japanese people have admirably proven they are a super-19 ior race unequalled in this world. If the Japanese 20 conform to their inherent nature, they inevitably will 21 be endowed with the divine blessing of Providence.
22 Those who do not believe in Providence are not true
23 Japanese. And if we do not receive the divine blessing, 24 it is because we are acting contrary to the national 25 polity.

1 "KOKUTAI MEICHO on the homefront is very 2 important. The duty of the Japanese on the homefront
3 is primarily to clarify the national polity. Lately, 4 there have been many who favor using the Diet to assist 5 the Emperor, and advocate assistance to Imperial Rule.
6 Regrettably, there are still some who do not comprehend 7 the true significance of Imperial Rule. It is Imperial 8 Rule when the Emperor graciously presides over the 9 government. In America, where Roosevelt assumes the 10 reins of government, it is simply politics. The two 11 forms of government differ in essence and significance.
12 There is a basic difference between the essence of 13 foreign governments and the significance of the Imperial 14 Rule of Japan.

15 "The benevolent rule of His Majesty, The 16 Emperor, is not only bestowed upon Japan itself, but 17 extends to all mankind. This is the reason why it is 18 defined as 'The Divine Mission'. You are to assist in 19 this 'Divine Mission'; so, as Japanese, you must have 20 a superior mental attitude. If you are to employ a 21 foreign political ideology to assist this 'Divine
22 Mission,' it will be merely an exercise of the privilege 23 of suffrage.
24

25 "The basic principle of Imperial Rule is that it be extended over the earth. Therefore, since you

1 are to assist in this, it must take on a deeper
2 significance. Not comprehending its essence, there 3 are some who have lost their interest in assisting 4 the Imperial Rule.

5 "The present Greater East Asia War is the 6 Divine Will of God. The time has come now to open 7 the Rock Cave on this earth. Japan, during this war, 8 is able to nurture her strength and spirit, while 9 materialistic foreign countries are faced with decline.
10 That is natural since, from a materialistic viewpoint, 11 war exhausts a nation's strength. Therefore, the 12 longer the war is prolonged, the greater will be the 13 difference between the strength of our country and 14 that of foreign countries, until finally the stage 15 will probably be reached where their only hope will 16 be to respectfully request the sovereignty of His 17 Majesty, The Emperor, the Incarnation of God.

18 "We Japanese must not view this war material-19 istically. This Holy War is not a war of men and 20 materials. If this war is fought on a basis of man-21 power and material strength alone, the attrition of 22 war will exhaust friend and foe alike, and eventually 23 all mankind will be prostrate. But if there should be 24 a race of people who have a true God presiding over 25 them, and who are fighting a holy war in his name, these

1 noble people will inevitably be bestowed with the 2 Divine Blessing of Providence. Therefore, there 3 will be a marked difference in the national strength 4 of countries which are guided by God and those which 5 are not. The race which is fighting under the 6 guidance of God must be Japan. Otherwise, there would 7 be no justification for the sanctification of the 8 Japanese national polity. In this light our national 9 polity should be thoroughly understood by all Japanese.

10 "When Emperor JIMMU went on a punitive ex-
11 pedition to Ada, the rebel resistance was strong.
12 Moreover, many of his soldiers fell ill, and Prince 13 ITSUSE was pathetically killed in action. Even the 14 Emperor himself became sick and underwent terrible 15 hardships. At this point he solemnly offered suppli-
16 cation to the Gods of Heaven and Earth, and as a 17 result he was able to successfully conclude the ex-18 pedition against Ada without having to depend on arms.

19 "In order to conclude the war successfully,
20 we must first follow the historical example of Emperor 21 JIMMU and offer supplication.

22 "The Emperor is the incarnation of God, and 23 is the personification of the Sun Goddess, AMATERASU
24 OMIKAMI. Therefore, if the Japanese people worship
25 their Emperor, they are, in reality, worshipping God.

1 "If the proper state of mind is developed 2 to perfection, the spiritual and materialistic as-3 pects of the war will take care of themselves; the 4 internal structure of Japan will be strengthened and 5 the New World Order will be firmly established. Each 6 nation will have its place under the sun, and for the 7 first time a permanent peace and security will be 8 assured all mankind."

1 Captain Sandusky will now offer further evidence
2 to the Court.

3 MR. CAUDLE: If it please the Tribunal, on 4 page 4 of this document which has just been read, the 5 last paragraph starting with the 5th line, there appears 6 to be a translator's note there down to the next to the 7 last line. It is all in parenthesis and I think it 8 ought to be stricken from the record.

9 THE PRESIDENT: Are you really prejudiced 10 by it?

11 MR. CAUDLE: Well, sir, I don't think so. I
12 just think it ought not be in here. If we are going 13 to let the translators give evidence we might get in 14 the habit of it.

15 THE PRESIDENT: Captain Sandusky.

16 MR. SANDUSKY: Mr. President, I continue the 17 case against the accused, SHIRATORI and offer in evidence 18 IPS document No. 1616.

19 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

20 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
21 No. 1616 will receive exhibit No. 2234.

23 referred to was marked prosecution's ex-
24 hibit No. 2234 and received in evidence.)

25 MR. SANDUSKY: This document consists of 7

1 articles and lectures which I hasten to add will be 2 read only in part.

3 Like the preceding documents, this document
4 will show further that the defendant, SHIRATORI, was 5 an ardent apostle of military collaboration with Germany
6 and Italy for the purpose of furthering Japan's aggressive
7 expansion in Asia. (Reading):

10 Ministry.

11 "Preface" --

12 THE PRESIDENT: You are reading or propose 13 to read practically the whole of this?

14 MR. SANDUSKY: I beg your pardon, your Honor, 15 I did not hear.

16 THE PRESIDENT: According to the blue pencil
17 markings, you propose to read practically the whole 18 of this very lengthy document.

19 MR. SANDUSKY: Your Honor, excisions, substantial 20 excisions have been made since the time the document
21 was marked and I will be obliged to announce them as I 22 go along. I think that not more than one-third will 23 be read.

24 THE PRESIDENT: That will add about forty or 25 fifty pages to the transcript.

1 Yes, proceed, Captain Sandusky.

2 MR. SANDUSKY: (Reading)

3 "Preface

4 "I am presenting to my friends these various 5 lectures I have given all over the country and which 6 have appeared in newspapers and magazines since my 7 return to Japan last autumn. They are here organized 8 under one cover for publication.

9 "Seen in today's light, they constitute 10 opinions which might well be revised and since in the 11 light of later facts there are several chapters that 12 are false, I should perhaps be ashamed to offer this 13 to the public as it stands.

14 "However, it required considerable 'courage' 15 for me to offer them at the time I returned in an 16 atmosphere in which such ideas were being ridiculed by 17 certain groups saying 'Is it not like making a landing 18 in the face of the enemy?' Seen from such an historical 19 viewpoint, this may still have some reference value.

20 "However, now that the Tripartite Alliance
21 has become a reality, we should of course not wander
22 aimlessly over particulars of the past. The worldwide
23 significance of this Alliance, particularly as regards 24 the new view of the world and the New Order which is to 25 govern human society in the future, requires profound

1 explanation. It is hoped that through such efforts
2 by competent persons those results will one after another
3 be achieved in the world. I shall be happy if this book 4 results in presenting a small beginning to that end in 5 the future.

9 "I The Necessity of the Japan-Germany-Italy 10 Alliance

11 "(December 1939)

12 "Before we discuss present foreign policies, 13 we must firstly know the fact that the world is now on 14 the eve of a great revolution. The last world war was 15 not fought as the result of opposition between new powers
16 and old ones, but countries of similar character determined 17 their attitude toward the war according to old ideas 18 about their respective circumstances and interests.
19 Therefore, countries that were basically unable to 20 cooperate fought on the same side. A conspicuous example 21 is that Japan and Italy took sides with the old powers
22 including Britain, the United States, and France.
23 However, the Versailles Treaty reversed the course of 24 history and returned the order of the world to that of 25 one or two centuries ago, thus stimulating the rise of 1 new powers. Japan's launching upon her continental 2 policies, and Italy's and Germany's completion of their 3 totalitarian systems are evidence of this. At first these 4 new powers could not be said to have awakened to their 5 common mission, but, as the old powers, from the instinct

6 of self-preservation, showed a tendency to combination 7 and establishment of a united front, the new powers were 8 inevitably compelled to cooperate with each other.
9 Such is the present situation of the world.

10 "Hitherto, these two sides have been distinguished 11 as have nations and have-not nations. This is quite 12 right, for most of the rising nations have poor resources 13 with living spheres confined to too narrow areas, and 14 are greatly dissatisfied with existing conditions.
15 However, if the desires of these countries were for 16 mere improvement of their economic conditions, there 17 would be no difference between the existing struggle 18 and past international struggles for supremacy. However, 19 I think we can find higher significance in the present 20 opposition in the world.

21 "Now all our people know that Japan's advance 22 in the continent is not the result of a desire for mere 23 material gain, but aims at the realization of the 24 Japanese people's great ideal established at the time
25 of the foundation of our nation. This is clearly shown

1 in the phrase 'the new order in East Asia'. As is known, 2 the concept of the national structures of Italy and 3 Germany has something in common with the basic principle
4 of the foundation of our empire. It is needless to say 5 that the views of what in brief may be called totalitarian 6 nations regarding the universe and the state form a sharp 7 contrast to those of so-called democratic nations, 8 whose keynote is individualism. When we examine the present 9 situation of the world divided into two powers, the new 10 and the old, we must focus our attention on the conflict 11 of these ideas.

12 THE PRESIDENT: We will adjourn until half-past 13 one.

14 (Whereupon, at 1200, a recess
15 was taken until 1330.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

1 The Tribunal met, pursuant to recess, at 1330.

2
3 MARSHAL OF THE COURT: The International Military
4 Tribunal for the Far East is now resumed.

5 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Sandusky.

6
7 MR. SANDUSKY: Mr. President, before the 8 noon recess I was reading Document 1616 and had 9 reached the last paragraph on page 4. I omit the 10 next several paragraphs and continue on the last 11 paragraph on page 5.

12 (Reading): "If BRITAIN, AMERICA, FRANCE, 13 and others wish to maintain their immense economic 14 sphere which they themselves are at present enjoying, 15 is it not proper for them in magnanimity to recognize 16 that a superior race, no less inferior to them, should 17 hold an economic sphere of the same degree? The birth 18 of a new world cannot be realized without this. This, 19 I believe, is the immediate problem confronting the 20 world. To bring forth this new world, such ideas as 21 natural rights of man, racial self-determination, and 22 sovereign rights of nations must be considerably re-23 formed and at the same time the so-called have nations
24 should be prepared to sacrifice themselves. To put it 25 plainly, the world hitherto has been divided into some

1 sixty odd nations, each insisting upon the absoluteness
2 of her sovereign rights, which has led all the more 3 to obstruction of the growth and development of 4 human society. Roughly, the aim of totalitarian 5 countries can be said to lie in the remedying of 6 this irrationality. In other words, their plan is 7 to divide the world into comparatively few groups 8 or blocs and within their respective spheres to enable 9 each race to lead a harmonious life of contentment
10 and peace. In the old concept of thought, this is a 11 drastic revolution and perhaps it cannot be realized
12 without great strife. An extensive war has been waged 13 in ASIA for these two and a half years, while in 14 EUROPE a great conflict has come into existence between 15 the new and the old powers and it is most likely to 16 increase its intensity and scale. However, a European 17 union has been advocated among the belligerent countries
18 of EUROPE, and in the Orient also there is a demand 19 for an EAST ASIA federation or bloc. Thus, we believe, 20 future world history will necessarily proceed along 21 the above-mentioned course.

22 "In the light of the aforementioned premises
23 as a whole, I feel there is no need for hesitation 24 in determining JAPAN's future foreign policy. In 25 fact, ever since JAPAN embarked on her continental

1 policy with the Manchurian Incident, her foreign policy 2 has been established and to back out of or swerve from 3 it now is not permissible. Still, the presence of two 4 different opinions in JAPAN today and the fact that 5 the people are hesitating between them is truly a 6 wonder of this world. However, this is a transitory 7 phenomenon. The inevitability of history cannot be 8 altered by human power. In the long run, that which 9 is bound to happen, will probably happen. However, 10 the domestic and foreign situations at present will 11 not allow hesitation and indecision for long."

12 I omit the next two paragraphs.

13 "Therefore, not only is it unnecessary for 14 JAPAN to change any of her program for establishing 15 the new order in East ASIA, but now she need not 16 hesitate in expanding and completing them.

17 "The new order of East ASIA is linked with 18 the new order of the world. The new order cannot be 19 realized in this part of the world alone, if the 20 rest of the world adheres to the old order, or goes 21 back in the opposite direction. It seems that JAPAN 22 is going to withdraw utterly from the problems of 23 EUROPE and make efforts to settle the CHINA Incident.
24 Unable to understand and explain correctly the new 25 phenomena which crop up one after another throughout

1 EUROPE, she dismissed them with the single comment
2 'Complicated and incomprehensible.' This amounts
3 to nothing more than seeking refuge in the popular 4 but common policy of devoting herself in the future
5 entirely to the problem of CHINA. However, the 6 present situation of the world does not permit such 7 an evasion. Problems of ASIA are inevitably those 8 of EUROPE and AMERICA. A bold and brave foreign 9 policy for new JAPAN should be established in a 10 dignified manner and should display understanding 11 of the international political situation which is 12 now at a turning-point in world history.

13 "II

14 "THE EUROPEAN WAR

15 "and

16 "The Attitude of JAPAN

17 "An address in November, 1939

18 "Before I went to ITALY, every one in JAPAN
19 talked of totalitarianism and of an anti-comintern
20 axis. Many people thought that the relationship 21 among JAPAN, GERMANY and ITALY did not end merely in 22 the Anti-Comintern Pact, but that this relationship 23 would be further strengthened. One of the reasons 24 is probably that the people themselves keenly felt, 25 in the light of present international relations, that

1 the settlement of the CHINA Incident would owe much
2 to GERMANY and ITALY. Before I went abroad, I ob-
3 served a rather widespread feeling among the people
4 that it would, therefore, be well if this anti-Comin-5 tern relationship were further developed into a 6 military alliance. As regards the conclusion of a 7 generally unconditional military alliance of JAPAN,
8 GERMANY, and ITALY, it was definitely recognized 9 that the people in general desired an 'alliance,' the 10 type of alliance being a secondary matter. Thereupon, 11 I left for ITALY with the thought of doing my humble 12 best in this matter.

13 "JAPAN, however, seemed to be for the 14 settlement of the CHINA Incident by cooperating with 15 BRITAIN. Such being the attitude of JAPAN, GERMANY 16 and ITALY began to mistrust JAPAN on this point and,
17 finally giving up JAPAN, went as far as the RUSSO-
18 GERMAN Non-Aggression Pact. As there is not enough 19 time to explain in detail the circumstances which 20 led them to this Treaty, and as it also seems some-21 what improper to make them all frankly known, I am 22 going to omit this part. However, I can affirm here 23 the indisputable fact that JAPAN also was perhaps 24 responsible and should indulge in introspection for 25 the course which led to conclusion of the RUSSO-GERMAN

has not really undergone a change even today. However,

1 Non-Aggression Pact.

2 "It is generally considered that GERMANY
3 betrayed JAPAN and is treacherous, but in my opinion, 4 GERMANY neither betrayed JAPAN nor was guilty of 5 treachery. Considering the circumstances leading to 6 her action, we cannot dare call GERMANY treacherous.
7 Moreover, Germany allied herself with the SOVIET UNION,
8 contrary to the spirit of the Anti-Comintern Pact 9 which naturally seemed mutually advantageous to both 10 JAPAN and herself. Furthermore, since this was a 11 step nearer to an alliance and not a mere non-aggression 12 treaty, it seems sensible that GERMANY's feeling toward 13 JAPAN will become cool. However, the truth is quite 14 the opposite. I can state as an absolute fact that 15 GERMANY, in spite of her alliance with the U.S.S.R., 16 is now still offering JAPAN her friendship as profound 17 as ever. Of course ITALY has no reason to change
18 her feeling towards JAPAN. She still feels as ex-19 ceedingly friendly as ever. Moreover, the relation 20 between ITALY and GERMANY is not at all aggravated
21 by this Non-Aggression Pact. The fact is that ITALY 22 preferred a GERMANY-U.S.S.R. rapprochement, and had 23 hitherto been recommending it to GERMANY.

24 "The JAPAN-GERMANY-ITALY Axis, therefore,
25 has not really undergone a change even today. However,

1 JAPAN seems to think GERMANY in some way betrayed
2 her, and that the latter's alliance with the SOVIET 3 UNION is suspect. In view of the international 4 situation in which JAPAN stands today, and from 5 practical necessity, it is desirable that JAPAN 6 cooperate with GERMANY and also go hand in hand with 7 ITALY. However, the general sentiment of JAPAN
8 seems to be that she cannot again put out her once-9 rejected hand to GERMANY. Nevertheless, the bias of 10 JAPAN is such that the relationship between JAPAN, 11 GERMANY and ITALY can be brought back again to the 12 past not only in form but in fact.

13 "The GERMANY-U.S.S.R. Pact, concluded in 14 this way, is not due to GERMANY's ill will against 15 JAPAN and GERMANY alone must not be denounced for 16 a betrayer. Then, I feel we must consider coolly 17 whether the conclusion of this RUSSO-GERMAN Pact is 18 advantageous to JAPAN or not. The first fruit of 19 the GERMANY-U.S.S.R. Pact is the current BRITISH-20 FRENCH War against GERMANY. -If the GERMANY-U.S.S.R.
21 Pact had not been concluded, GERMANY would probably 22 not have adopted such a strong policy. It may be 23 said that the GERMANY-U.S.S.R. Pact was a direct 24 incentive to this war.

25 "I do not blindly consider the present war

1 in EUROPE as being a divine tempest or providential
2 help for JAPAN. However, I firmly believe that the 3 fact that this war has broken out can be developed 4 in favour of JAPAN according to her aims and policies."

5 I omit the next two paragraphs, beginning
6 the middle of page 11.

7 "The same thing may be said about AMERICA,
8 I think. AMERICA is now very anxious about JAPAN's 9 rapprochement with the U.S.S.R. With BRITAIN, AMERICA
10 always hopes for deterioration of RUSSO-JAPANESE
11 relations. This is because she fears JAPAN's position
12 in the FAR EAST will be strengthened. If JAPAN 13 were to fight with the U.S.S.R., she would have to 14 relax her control of construction in CHINA. They 15 hope that JAPAN will find it necessary to give up
16 CHINA. The possibility of a compromise between JAPAN 17 and the SOVIET UNION is truly annoying to them. The 18 reason why AMERICA suddenly recognized the U.S.S.R.
19 after sixteen years' refusal is this: After the 20 outbreak of the MANCHURIAN Incident, JAPAN would 21 not listen to AMERICA in every matter, and, moreover,
22 AMERICA can do hardly anything to JAPAN. The U.S.S.R.
23 is the only country within reach of JAPAN. Therefore, 24 AMERICA adopted a policy of lending money, supplying 25 materials, and furnishing technical experts to the

1 U.S.S.R. in order to make her powerful so that 2 AMERICA could oppress JAPAN."

3 I omit to the second paragraph on page 13.

4 "What would happen if JAPAN had slaved for 5 the sake of the democratic countries to destroy the 6 totalitarian nations, and if the old powers of 7 democracy had come to dominate the world again?
8 To the eyes of BRITAIN, the UNITED STATES, and others,
9 JAPAN, today, is a rascal not inferior to GERMANY
10 and ITALY, and is considered as an aggressor. If 11 they win again, the result will not be as simple as 12 that of the last WASHINGTON Conference. I am sure 13 that they would force JAPAN to withdraw her army from 14 CHINA, to return MANCHURIA and, furthermore, to get 15 cut of KOREA and FORMOSA. They would probably even 16 insist that the whole Japanese Navy be sunk off
17 OSHIMA Island. Such is quite obvious.

18 "However, if GERMANY really is unable to 19 defeat BRITAIN and FRANCE, it is needless to say that 20 JAPAN must think the matter over deeply. It would be 21 unfortunate, but we cannot support those who are 22 destined to be defeated. However, as for my forecast 23 on this war, I simply cannot believe that GERMANY will 24 be beaten again this time."

25 "I omit to the last paragraph on page 14.

1 "Under such circumstances, Germany today will 2 never be defeated, even under the worst possible condi-
3 tions. Therefore, we reach the conclusion that there
4 will be no great danger, if Japan, today does show
5 good-will to Germany and fights on her side. Further-6 more, if the countries that are trying to establish a 7 new order in Europe should not be able to win, it
8 would be impossible for the Japanese people to construct 9 a new order in Asia. Generally speaking, the old order 10 in Europe and Asia is represented by Britain and France.
11 If the countries that are endeavoring to maintain this 12 old order cannot be defeated, a new order cannot be 13 established either in the Occident or in the Orient.
14 Japan, Germany and Italy are all countries whose 15 mission it is to build in cooperation the new world 16 order. Even without concluding a treaty, the aim of 17 the three powers is one.

18 "The Germans used to say, 'By no means do 19 we ask for Japan to come and help us in Europe. She 20 has her own mission to carry out. Her obligation to 21 a treaty would be discharged by destroying the old 22 order and establishing a new one in Asia. Purging 23 British power from Asia by any means is actually what 24 we would expect from Japan as her duty in this Treaty.
25 We require nothing more than that.' As long as Japan

1 carries out that obligation, there is really no need 2 for an alliance and the like. They want Japan to 3 fight solely for the establishment of a new order in 4 Asia and press on towards the settlement of the 5 China Incident with a firm resolve never to compromise 6 with the old powers or make concessions to them."

7 I omit the remainder of this article and 8 resume at Part III on page 18:

9 "SOVIET-GERMAN COALITION PROBLEM AND GERMAN
10 POWER.

11 "(LECTURE GIVEN AT THE IMPERIAL UNIVERSITY
12 ALUMNI ASSOCIATION 'GAKUSHI-KAI' IN FEBRUARY 1940.

13 "The recent diplomacy of Japan, before I
14 went abroad, was based on the Japan-German-Italy
15 Anti-Comintern Axis, which the government constantly 16 proclaimed and which all of the people believed. How-17 ever, as the China Incident gradually progressed, the 18 people in general realized that German and Italian aid 19 to Japan was extremely effective so that the opinion 20 came to be expressed that a further step should be 21 taken to make it into a military Alliance."

22 I omit the next two paragraphs and resume at 23 the second paragraph on page 19:

24 "It cannot be denied that in the China 25 question Japan gradually became clearly pitted against

1 Britain. The anti-British movements throughout the 2 country relative to the Tientsin question clearly 3 demonstrate this. Particularly at that time it was 4 Japan's disposition to aim exclusively at the Soviet 5 Union, but should not Japan alter that idea in the 6 course of the China question? In view of the 7 inevitability of a clash between Japan and Britain
8 and the aforementioned attitude of Germany and Italy, 9 I felt that perhaps Japan should alter basically her 10 former attitude. However, Japan's feeling was still 11 determined to aim at the U. S. S. R. Since it was 12 the idea of influential quarters to compromise with 13 England if possible and in certain cases to be 14 friendly with America, I thought that it would be 15 extremely difficult to put my ideas into practice.

16 "In short, Germany, unlike Japan, has Britain
17 and France as their chief objects instead of U. S. S. R.
18 I could have asserted that although Germany would 19 fight the U. S. S. R. if absolutely necessary, she 20 took the old powers of democracy as the greatest 21 hindrance. But since the circumstances within the 22 country were as I have mentioned before, I submitted 23 to the Government my opinion that Germany would 24 inevitably ally with the U. S. S. R., only if Japan
25 hesitated to contract this alliance. However, a

1 nation-wide anti-British movement broke out with 2 respect to the Tientsin problem. And as I saw that 3 this was supported by the whole Japanese nation, 4 I thought that it was no time to hesitate and in 5 early July I notified the Government twice in 6 details as follows:

7 "Germany and Italy are not contemplating
8 a war against the USSR. If the Government is going 9 to conclude a Treaty on the assumption that war will 10 be waged against USSR, the idea had better be given 11 up. I believe the intention of Germany and Italy is 12 to draw Russia to their side after concluding an 13 alliance among Japan, Germany and Italy. In order
14 to establish a new order in China today, we must drive 15 out from China the old order which is represented by 16 Britain. Therefore, I believe that Japan should 17 conclude a treaty as soon as possible with Germany 18 and Italy in opposition to Britain and France, and 19 furthermore, for her to confront the USSR with the 20 combined powers of Japan, Germany and Italy; with the 21 aid of Russia wash their hands off of the East; to 22 have USSR stop the aid to Chiang Kai-shek, and to have 23 USSR withdraw the forces from the Manchurian-Soviet 24 border, and gradually effect the solution of the 25 pending problems favorably. I believe that this

1 policy is best suited to the occasion for Japan.

2 "At this moment if we do not conclude an 3 alliance with Germany and Italy, Germany will probably 4 league with USSR. Moreover, it is drawing near. It 5 is not the time for hesitation. If Japan tried to 6 solve the problem between her and USSR after the 7 alliance between Germany and USSR has been concluded, 8 wouldn't things become unfavorable for Japan as the 9 situation will have changed by them?'

10 I omit the next paragraph:

11 "Now Germany and Italy were of the opinion
12 that the policy adopted by Japan on the continent
13 since the Manchurian Incident and the establishment 14 of a new order in its place; in other words, that it 15 was Japan's continental policy to overthrow first in 16 the East the status quo of the world established by 17 the Versailles Treaty -- the Versailles order which 18 in the East is expressed as the Washington order -- 19 is what Japan is trying to overthrow. They believe 20 that the Manchurian Incident, the renunciation of the 21 Naval Disarmament Pact, the establishment of a new 22 order in China now in question are all directed to 23 that object. Therefore, nothing seemed to them to 24 be more natural that Japan, Germany and Italy should 25 enter into an alliance to overthrow the old order of

1 the world in concert. They little dreamed of diffi-
2 culty in the negotiation. They looked upon that 3 treaty as all too natural and a matter of course.
4 But the negotiations dragged on, until at last in 5 June they came into possession of a report that Japan
6 was going to make terms with Great Britain, her 7 enemy nation, greatly to their astonishment. Besides, 8 this situation was brought about immediately after 9 nation-wide anti-British movement. I suppose that 10 Japan's actions and her natural feelings must have 11 struck them as strange and complex."

12 I omit the next two paragraphs and resume in 13 the middle of page 22:

14 "Such being the case, the Russo-German 15 Treaty was concluded at last. At that time the 16 German authorities said that they felt deeply regret-17 table and that they should have had Japan's understand-18 ing beforehand, but if they had said such thing to 19 Japan, it would surely appear in all the papers of 20 the world within 48 hours. Since such cases have been 21 experienced number of times in the past, they were 22 unable to notify Japan beforehand. They entreated
23 us not to think ill of this action. They violated 24 the pact because they adhered to legalities and 25 formalities. They pleaded us not to say that it was

1 a breach of faith. In the pressing situation, it was 2 necessity that compelled them, so do not think ill
3 of them. They assured us that their feelings towards 4 Japan today have not changed the least. They still 5 hold expectations of bringing about intimacy of the 6 relations between the two nations. They have often 7 and repeatedly suggested to Japan to compromise with 8 the USSR, and if Japan is in that mood, they will 9 offer their services as mediator. In short, as I 10 have stated in the beginning this may be enough to 11 confirm the supposed intention that Germany has no
12 thought of fighting the USSR and when the Japan-13 Germany-Italy Alliance is found, Germany had in 14 mind to attract the USSR into this camp."

"To begin with the totalitarian system of Germany and Italy is, to them, the representation of the natural progress of history, while the system of liberalistic individualism of the British and French should perish. It will perish even if it is left untouched. I believe they are of the view that mere confrontation by the powerful German-Italian New Order against the declining liberalistic order of Great Britain and France will cause Britain and France to lose faith. It seems that Germany will take stand in the Siegfried Line and bent to exhaust the nerves of Britain and France, while on the other hand, she will aim to deal a finishing blow on them with her air forces and submarines. Of course, in practice matters will not be so simple, but I hold that a confrontation of the old against new forces today will give sufficient chances to the new powers to win this war. Of course, if the USSR, Italy and Japan side with the British and French, it will be of grave consequence to Germany; but today, such things will not happen. As to Italy, the people say that she is again sitting on the fence. She had to side with Great Britain in 1914 because of her various weaknesses.

"However, with the result of Mussolini's rise, things have assumed a new aspect. Today Italy possesses enough power that Britain and France cannot easily

1 sway her. The situation has changed so that Italy
2 of today is not what she had been in the last war,
3 when she was forced to run to the Allies by Britain
4 and France. Italy made full developments in her 5 political powers under 17 years of Fascist rule.
6 For further developments, there remains but ter-7 ritorial expansion. As Mussolini puts it Italy must 8 expand or explode. There is no first-class power so 9 destitute of resources as Italy. Her population shows 10 a yearly increase of 450,000. She must either expand 11 or explode."

12 I omit the next four paragraphs to the 13 middle of page 31:

14 "We were sent on a mission to Europe and we did 15 what we were able to form the Triple Alliance. Since 16 an alliance is an important affair affecting the 17 fate of a State, we did all our best to investigate 18 and study fully their conditions. As a result we 19 arrived at the conclusion as we have explained above 20 on the actual strength and attitude of the powers 21 involved. As Japan did not join the Alliance and, on 22 the contrary, the Russo-German rapprochement has been 23 brought about, thus leading to the outbreak of the war,
24 the European situation may have more or less changed
25 since my return home. I will not decidedly affirm

1 that all future developments will become as what I 2 have stated. What I can say with confidence today is 3 that what Japan is doing in the East and what Germany
4 and Italy are trying to do in Europe bear resemblance 5 on the point that both possess the great historic 6 mission to establish a new order in the East which 7 is a national conviction in connection with the China 8 Incident, will help much, in a larger sense, what 9 Germany and Italy are trying to do in Europe.

10 "Consequently, should Japan compromise with the 11 old forces because of her consideration for resources 12 and others, the spiritual blows that will affect the 13 new rising power of Europe such as Germany and Italy 14 will be indeed great. Furthermore, it may tend to 15 weaken their determination. As above explained, it 16 is true that the Russo-German Pact and the current 17 hostilities have relieved Japan's international 18 position for the time being. However, to entertain 19 the idea that Japan should neither side with Germany 20 and Italy, nor bind itself with Britain and the 21 United States, but utilize the present easy position 22 and go on settling the China Incident with the so-
23 called principle of independence and Self-reliance
24 will be opportune if they actually go on fighting 25 forever, but there is no such war that has no end.

1 There is always peace with war. Japan will surely 2 be asked to participate in that Peace Conference.
3 In such a case, Japan's principle of Independence and 4 Self-Reliance; that is, siding with neither will mean 5 isolation and without assistance at the conference
6 meeting. Japan should be most careful that the white 7 people should not form a united front and attempt 8 solution of their problems at the sacrifice of the 9 East. Should they suddenly awake and find that it is 10 futile to fight among themselves in Europe; and 11 realize whichever side may win, resources are short 12 in Europe. Fortunately, there are much resources 13 in the East, and that the people are weak. Japan is 14 just but a fledgling state. If it becomes such that 15 they come to agree upon carrying out a joint ex-
16 ploitation of the East, where Britain has until now 17 made it her domain rejecting other countries and 18 herself not fully utilizing it, and that before Japan's 19 power could be maintained, Japan must confront an 20 indeed difficult situation. The reason why we ad-
21 vanced the forming of an alliance with the far-away
22 powers of Germany and Italy is because we gave thought 23 to this question.

24 "I believe that this should be the fundamental 25 policy of Japan's diplomacy. In practice, our seniors have also taken up such policy. The people and 1 government may have been unconscious of this fact,

2 but for examples, the Anglo-Japanese Alliance was a 3 result of that -- in other words, the white man's 4 world was divided into two and we have bound ourselves 5 with one of them. There is no reason why we should 6 let them become one."

7 I omit the remaining two paragraphs of this 8 part.

9 Part IV, "The Trend of the Great War," from 10 the Diamond Magazine, June, 1940:

11 "The Trend of the Great War.

12 "We are told that the German Army which invaded 13 Belgium and Holland crushed the Allied Armies with 14 irresistible force and has already emerged at the 15 English Channel. Reflecting on this, it seems that 16 the Allied forces numbering upwards of one million
17 on the Belgian Front will not be able to escape 18 annihilation, and the final issue is already certain."

19 I omit the next four paragraphs. The second 20 full paragraph on page 34:

21 "As a result of this war is it not probable that 22 a cruel, rather ghastly great liquidation would take 23 place? Now the question is: will Britain and France, 24 which have been basking in the favors of the world for 25 countless centuries past, be permitted to exist as

1 great powers or not? Furthermore, can the former 2 absurd situation wherein the small countries of 3 Europe hold absolute sovereignty and stand in the way 4 of the big powers continue or not?

5 "If the above-mentioned revolution should be 6 carried out in Europe, it is unavoidable that it 7 will have a great influence on Asia as a matter of 8 course. How would the colonies of Britain and France, 9 and those of Holland be disposed of? This is a question 10 of great significance from Japan's standpoint. The 11 destiny of several hundred million Asiatic compatriots 12 is now at a great turning point. Would it be proper 13 for this great problem to be decided in the presence 14 of Japan without listening to Japan? What significance 15 does the new order in East Asia contain, and what 16 significance should it have? Our people must at this 17 time carefully consider this point anew.

18 "Since the outbreak of the second European war 19 Japan has adopted a policy of non-participation and 20 has said she will press exclusively for the solution 21 of the China Incident. However, this is fundamentally 22 a point of view which misread the trend of world 23 history. Inasmuch as the European War is a war be-24 tween old and new principles, it must be considered a 25 great mistake for Japan, which launched a great

1 undertaking in Asia to destroy the old order and estab-
2 lish a new one, to think she can stay out of the 3 European War. Whatever may be said of this, Japan is 4 actually involved in the European War. Speaking even 5 more briefly, it is not too much to say that the 6 fuse of the European War was first attached by the 7 China Incident.

8 "The reason is that the war between the East and 9 the West centered on that common target. The forces
10 which stand in the way of a new order in East Asia -- 11 the enemies of Germany and Italy -- are those not 12 the powers of the old order in the world? Our ad-13 vocacy of the alliance between Japan, Germany and 14 Italy was based upon this point of view. Moreover 15 for this reason also the assertion is made that in 16 spite of the fact that an alliance has not been con-
17 cluded and apart from the question of a treaty, Japan, 18 Germany, and Italy stand in an inseparable relation-19 ship. For this reason in particular we have been 20 crying loudly that we must not regard the European 21 War with indifference, and that Japan must not let 22 Germany lose. The inseparable relationship between 23 Japan, Germany and Italy is historically inevitable.
24 Although it looks outwardly as if Japan, misguided 25 by the influence of a certain group in the country

1 is inclined toward Britain and the U.S.A., rather 2 than toward Germany and Italy, the path of world 3 political trends cannot by this be changed even 4 slightly. Japan, in spite of the opinion of forces of 5 the old order at home, is making a great contribution
6 to Germany, which is in an extremely advantageous
7 position, in the latter's prosecution of the war.
8 No one doubts that the Russo-German Pact was a prime 9 requisite for this war. However, the fact that made
10 the Soviet Union shake hands with her old enemy
11 Germany, so easily is the existence of the Japan-
12 German-Italy axis, although the progress of negotia-
13 tions for the three power alliance is the main 14 reason. Furthermore, it cannot be denied that America's 15 remaining neutral for eight months contrary to pre-16 war expectation and her wrangling with Japan over the 17 China Incident has made her unable to participate 18 in the European War. Therefore, although we talk 19 about non-participation, Japan has actually played a 20 great role in the European War and it must be said
21 that Germany owes Japan a great deal."

22 I omit the remaining three paragraphs of 23 this part.

24 Part V:

25 "The New Order in Europe and Japan's Politics.

1 Attendance: SHIHATORI, Toshio, Former Ambassador
2 Plenipotentiary to Italy; NOMURA, Shigeami, Chief
3 of the Investigation Section, Spiritual Mobilization 4 Headquarters; KOBAYASHI, Goro, President of the 5 National Review Company. Reporter. (July, 1940).

6 "1. Japan's Spiritual Assistance to Germany and 7 Italy.

8 "KOBAYASHI: I called on you today because I 9 wish to listen to all of your opinions concerning 10 the international problem.

11 "SHIHATORI: Until now, I have done what I could 12 for the renovation of Japanese diplomacy, and in the 13 world situation, what we have advocated in the past 14 have generally become factual. However, since the 15 situation in Europe has changed with such rapidity, 16 we cannot merely boast of our far sighted views.
17 What we must firstly consider is whether Germany and 18 Italy who have won a great victory may change their 19 attitude. This would be, to a certain degree, un-20 avoidable. The end of the war is now in sight, and 21 I deeply feel that the present is indeed too late 22 for Japan, who has been greatly limited in the scope 23 of giving assistance.
25

1 "SHIRATORI: What I have always said to 2 others is that the war will surely reach the con-3 clusion as we had anticipated, and a situation will 4 develop in which we can say, 'Didn't we tell you 5 so', but the situation would then be too late, and 6 Japan will be placed in an awkward predicament.
7 However, I am not at all pessimistic, because Germany,
8 Italy, and Japan will essentially stand on common 9 ground even in the future world. Generally speak-10 ing, due to the fact that the political leaders of 11 Japan have misconstrued the inevitable course of 12 world history, it is regrettable that Japan has 13 somewhat deviated from this course. Regardless of 14 what one may say, the course which Japan has followed 15 since the China Incident could not be controlled 16 by a small number of people.

17 "We ought to follow the course which we 18 must follow. As long as Japan follows this course, 19 she, as a nation, must necessarily join the course 20 followed by Germany and Italy. For instance, for 21 the reason that that alliance was not established, 22 Japan, of course, has no obligation to assist Germany
23 and Italy. Notwithstanding the fact that the Govern-24 ment has actually stated its policy of non-inter-25 ference, what Japan is doing is becoming of great

1 help to Germany and Italy. What they wanted of 2 Japan in the alliance between Japan, Germany and 3 Italy was mainly that Japan weaken British and 4 French positions in the Orient and to check the 5 United States, and although Japan was not asked to 6 do this she has, in fact, done so. Now, even if 7 the United States wishes to participate in the war, 8 she cannot do so. During these nine months, they,
9 being checked by Japan, have neglected Europe.
10 Although diplomatically, they speak ill of Germany,
11 and are more or less aiding England and France 12 materially, their actual power is concentrated in 13 the Pacific. For Germany, this is a great help.
14 Before the war, it was generally said that America
15 would participate in the early stages of this war, 16 but if that were true the United States would have 17 furnished England and France with many planes.
18 Although England has predominant navy power, it 19 seems that her forces is still insufficient. If 20 the American navy had cooperated with that of Great 21 Britain, it would probably have been very advantage-22 ous for England and France. Firstly, it would have 23 been a great spiritual encouragement to England 24 and France. Such a country as Italy would have 25 hesitated to enter the war. If the United States

1 navy had operated together with that of England
2 and France in the Mediterranean Sea, Italy would 3 not have been able to make any moves. If viewed 4 in this manner, the situation would probably 5 have been considerably different from the present.
6 For one thing, America had greatly under-rated
7 Germany's strength. She had thought that Europe 8 was safe if entrusted to England and France. She 9 feeling that checking Japan was her chief mission, 10 is now concentrating her real power in the Pacific
11 Ocean. If viewed by Japan it is extremely bother-
12 some, but if viewed by Germany, it is an extreme 13 blessing. It is a great role that Japan has played 14 for the sake of Germany. However since the fact 15 that the concentration of the main power of the 16 U.S. in the Pacific was painful to the political 17 leaders of Japan, in trying to improve relations 18 in some way, and to reach an economical under-19 standing, they have followed a course which is 20 contrary to Germany's intentions. Consequently, 21 although Germany has no longer any reason to be 22 thankful to Japan, actually, Japan has rendered
23 services comparable to that extended by Italy.

24 "2. THE NEW ORDER IN EUROPE AND THE 25 OPPOSITION OF THE U.S.

1 "By the above fact, it can be seen that 2 looking from the standpoint that the position of 3 Japan, Germany, and Italy lies in a mission aiming 4 at the establishment of a new order in the East
5 and the West, what each nation in doing separately 6 is concentrated towards achieving the same goal.
7 What each does independently becomes in effect
8 mutual assistance. I think that the relationship 9 between the three nations lies in such a funda-
10 mental relationship. Viewed from that standpoint,
11 it is expected that Japan, Germany and Italy
12 can continue to cooperate, and even if Germany 13 should expel English and French influences from 14 Europe, it does not mean that from that very moment 15 a new order in Europe can be established. All 16 the factors belonging to the old order in Europe 17 will assemble in the American continent. The 18 gold bullion, which is most typical of the old 19 order, has already been quickly concentrated in 20 the United States. Of course the Jews, who are 21 greatest enemy of the new order, have already the 22 intention of moving to the United States, and all 23 the ousted ruling classes of England and France, 24 will also go to the United States. Since these 25 elements have formerly followed individualistic

1 and liberalistic philosophies, they cannot abso-
2 lutely remain in Europe ruled under totalitarian-3 ism. Henceforth, they will move in groups to the 4 United States as did the Puritans in olden times.
5 As a result of this, all the old elements of the 6 world will be concentrated in the United States.
7 America, which has been called the new world will 8 become the old world, and Europe of the old world 9 will become the new world, and this state of 10 opposition will continue for a considerable period 11 of time. Until the old elements in America are 12 finally driven out, the struggle will continue.

13 "On the one hand, if the national system
14 of Japan is abruptly converted to the new order, 15 and proceeds rapidly towards the establishment of 16 the new order in East Asia, it would naturally be 17 unavoidable for her to collaborate and cooperate
18 with Europe's new order.

19 "On the other hand, in the Pacific, she 20 will have to stand in opposition with America's old 21 order. Looking at it from its rough outline, it 22 may be said that after all, the coalition of Japan, 23 Germany, and Italy and the relation of mutual aid 24 and communication will continue."
25

I omit the rest of the items in part V,

1 and will resume with part VI, on page 60.

2 THE PRESIDENT: You say 60?

3 MR. SANDUSKY: Yes, sir, page 60.

4 "VI. Comment on Japan's Non-Interference.

5 (The Greater ASIA Magazine, June 1939)

6 "Within ten days since the invasion of 7 German troops into Belgium and Holland, they
8 obtained the same results as in the first one month
9 or two of the First European War. The fall of 10 Paris and the capture of the seacoast of Dover are 11 near at hand, and it is considered likely that the 12 German troops may also proceed to the British 13 Isles."

14 THE PRESIDENT: Is that date correct, June 15 1929? There was no second World War then.

16 MR. SANDUSKY: May I make a correction?
17 The first World War.

18 THE PRESIDENT: Here is an article in the 19 Greater East Asia Magazine of June 1939 speaking 20 about happenings in the war that had not yet 21 taken place.

22 MR. SANDUSKY: Your Honor, that seems 23 obviously to be an error. May I check on that and 24 give the correct date later?

25 "Within ten days since the invasion of

1 German troops into Belgium and Holland, they
2 obtained the same results as in the first one month
3 or two of the First European War. The fall of 4 Paris and the capture of the seacoast of Dover 5 are near at hand, and it is considered likely that 6 the German troops may also proceed to the British 7 Isles. This is, literally, world-shaking. To the 8 observers, however, who have witnessed the German's 9 invessant efforts for the last 7 years and who 10 properly appreciate the characteristics of the 11 German people and of their totalitarian regime, 12 the present state of affairs is, in fact, only 13 what was to be expected. It is therefore only 14 natural that those who have hitherto been regarding 15 liberalism and democracy as the pinnacle of human 16 culture and who believe in the indomitable power 17 of England or the Anglo-Saxon race have come to 18 doubt their own observations."

19 I omit down to the last paragraph on page 20 62.

21 "We have been advocating since the very 22 beginning of the present war that the world is just 23 on the eve of a gigantic transformation in which 24 the Old Order based upon Democratic Capitalism 25 will be doomed, in lieu whereof the New Order based

1 upon Totalitarianism must be set up. As Japan
2 has, ever since the Manchurian Incident, been assum-3 ing the leading role in establishing the New 4 Order throughout the China Incident, the Japanese 5 people should realize the New Order and act in 6 close concert with the Axis Powers, as Germany 7 and Italy. The supporters of the Old Order in 8 Japan have been reluctant in realizing the true 9 significance of this gigantic world-wide trans-10 formation, and in fact the conclusion of the 11 Triple Alliance between Japan, Germany and Italy
12 finally fell through due to the Old Order element
13 both at home and abroad. However, no human power 14 can do anything against the inevitable current of 15 world history.

16 "The way for Japan to pursue has already 17 been decided on. In fact, Japan has already been 18 trodding along the said path for nearly ten years.
19 Those Japanese who do not know well where their way 20 is leading to are looking on the present war in 21 Europe with utter indifference and wrongly think 22 that they can establish the New Order in Eastern 23 Asia by merely continuing to act in a conciliatory
24 manner with those powers established upon the Old 25 Order. They may be likened to persons who are

1 unaware of a fire in which they are already in 2 the midst. They imagine they can keep themselves
3 free from the world-wide gigantic transformation
4 so long as they are declaring their non-interference 5 policy.

6 "Some of the other Japanese are making 7 similar mistakes. For instance, they think that 8 Japan will not be dragged into the war as she did 9 not conclude the Triple Alliance with Germany and 10 Italy. These persons do not know the fact that 11 Japan has contributed much towards the attainments
12 made hitherto by Germany. But for the Alliance 13 between Germany and Soviet Russia, Germany would 14 probably not have been able to make up her mind
15 to start this war; and, in making Soviet Russia
16 friendly towards Germany, the presence of Japan
17 in the East and the fair progress of the negotia-
18 tions for concluding an alliance between the Axis
19 countries at Tokyo, Berlin and Rome are factors 20 which have contributed considerably.

21 "If the U.S. had participated in the war 22 at its early stage, not only might it possibly 23 have encouraged the morale of the British and 24 French forces, but their fighting power might also 25 have become actually enhanced. Germany too, might

1 not have been able to acquire her absolute 2 supremacy in the air, and it is likely that the 3 attitude of Italy might also have been greatly 4 effected. Is it not Japan that fastened the U.S.
5 down to the Pacific? The U.S. has not as yet been 6 able to assume a decisive attitude. Is not the 7 presence of Japan practically the main reason for 8 this? Germany owes a mint of gratitude to Japan.
9 In defiance of this close relation between Japan 10 and Germany, a certain group of Japanese have 11 sought a certain kind of understanding with 12 Britain at the Tokyo Parley after the Tientsin 13 Affair. This fact was promptly reported to 14 Germany. Of course Japan's attitude too has 15 doubtlessly become clearly understood recently in 16 Berlin. Under such circumstances, how can we 17 expect Germany to be grateful towards Japan?
18 The Japanese people should not forget the fact that 19 the Japanese diplomacy has done something that does 20 not pay for Japan, it has done much for Germany 21 and yet lets itself open to incur her wrath.

22 "If the world's map has to be drawn anew
23 as a result of the European War, if the Netherlands, 24 for instance, should become merged as German ter-
25 ritory, the Dutch East Indies would, as a matter

1 of course, become added to German territory. If 2 Japan continues to behave as she has in the past, 3 Germany will be placed under no obligation what-4 soever to Japan in giving the question of the 5 Dutch Indies her special consideration. It must 6 be remembered, however, that the South Seas has 7 become Japan's life line economically and strategical-
8 ly. We, in establishing the New Order, do not mean 9 to confine its area only to China. Japan cannot 10 remain idle as an onlooker in the event of a 11 wholesale change of territory taking place in the 12 southeast of Asia.

13 "If Japan should devote herself exclusively
14 to the solution of the China Problem by adhering 15 merely to her non-interference policy, matters will 16 doubtlessly become settled within a short period, 17 and subsequent to this European War, the Dutch 18 Indies as well as the colonies of England and France
19 will have their ownership decided with Japan look-20 ing on as a mere spectator. Therefore, at this 21 important juncture, Japan should realize the 22 ultimate significance of this gigantic world-wide 23 reform and should not fail to engage in active 24 participation therein."
25

1 Since the remaining part, part VII, covers
2 the same subject matters discussed in preceding 3 parts, I will, if it please the Tribunal, omit 4 reading it into the transcript.

5 Lieutenant Colonel Mornane will continue
6 reading for the prosecution.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Colonel Mornane.

8 LIEUTENANT COLONEL MORNANE: I propose to 9 produce four documents to complete the case against 10 the accused SATO. My first document is prosecution 11 document No. 1840, consisting of outlines of two 12 speeches delivered by the accused on the 25th and 13 29th of August 1938.

14 I tender this document in evidence.

15 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual
16 terms.

17 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's docu-
18 ment No. 1840 will be given exhibit No. 2235.

19 (Whereupon, the document above
20 referred to was marked prosecution's ex-
21 hibit No. 2235 and received in evidence.)

22 MR. FREEMAN: If the Tribunal please, I
23 object to the introduction of this document on 24 the ground that it was previously introduced under 25 exhibit No. 370. It appears that the prosecution

1 at this time is attempting to re-introduce the 2 same document with a new translation.

3 Previously I objected to the introduction
4 of this document on the ground that it did not 5 contain the words of the accused SATO, but only the 6 resume' of an unknown writer. The prosecution has 7 failed' to comply with the order of the Court 8 that they furnish the writer of the original trans-
9 lation. I refer here to page 3604 of the record, 10 where the President of the Tribunal directed the 11 prosecution in this manner. I think they should 12 endeavor to tell us who the writer is. They are 13 here in this document attempting to substitute a 14 new translation, with the name of a new translator, 15 but still not the writer.

1 THE PRESIDENT: Is this another version
2 of the speech by a different reporter?

3 MR. FREEMAN: If the Tribunal pleases, it 4 is and the contents of it are different from the 5 original exhibit 270.

6 THE PRESIDENT: That only puts us in the 7 position of making a choice; it does not render it 8 inadmissible.

9 MR. FREEMAN: It is a different translation
10 of the same speeches.

11 THE PRESIDENT: But the reporter's name is 12 now disclosed, is that so?

13 MR. FREEMAN: This is another one, not the 14 original writer.

15 THE PRESIDENT: Please state the facts as 16 you see them, Colonel Mornane.

17 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: If it please the 18 Tribunal, reading from page 3604 of the record, your 19 Honor said that you thought the prosecution should 20 endeavor to tell the Tribunal who the writer of the 21 document was. The original document, which has now 22 been produced to the Court as exhibit 2235, bears
23 the name of KUMAGAI and also his seal. I am not 24 familiar with the office held by KUMAGAI, but the 25

1 prosecution would be quite willing to ascertain what 2 that office is.

3 THE PRESIDENT: KUMAGAI could be anybody.
4 He could be a fictitious person.

5 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: That may be so,
6 your Honor.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Do you know whether he exists 8 or not, and if he does, where he is?

9 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: I didn't hear what 10 you said, your Honor.

11 (Whereupon, the last statement was 12 read by the Official Court Reporter.)

13 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: That is the posi-
14 tion, your Honor, but I would point to the certifi-15 cate of authenticity, which states that this docu-
16 ment is an official document of the Japanese Govern-17 ment and that it is part of the official archives
18 and files of the Home Ministry, and that it bears
19 the title "Policy Re Sino-Japanese Incident, War 20 Ministry Newspaper Section Chief, Colonel SATO, Kenryo."

21 THE PRESIDENT: Was SATO Home Minister or 22 War Minister?

23 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: SATO at that time 24 was the Press Chief -- Chief of Press Section of the 25 War Ministry, your Honor.

1 THE PRESIDENT: Well, there is some evi-
2 dence of authenticity on the face of the document.

3 MR. FREEMAN: If the Tribunal pleases, I
4 will emphasize the fact that this is a translation by 5 a new translator and is not the writer of the docu-6 ment.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Suppose they had a document
8 with two translations attached. They could tender 9 both and put the onus on the Court of making the 10 selection after hearing all the facts. That is all 11 it amounts to. We have to make a choice.

12 MR. FREEMAN: This document is the same docu-13 ment that they found in the Home Ministry. They 14 have another translation for it and the contents of 15 this one is different in some respects from the 16 first one.

17 THE PRESIDENT: We have one original and 18 two translations. It is for the Language Section 19 to decide. There is still no ground of non-admissi-20 bility. That is what I am looking for.

21 MR. FREEMAN: I would like to call the 22 Court's attention to the fact that 1840 in the Jap-23 anese is identical to exhibit 270. I would like to 24 call the Court's attention further to the fact that 25 originally, when Mr. Parkinson introduced this docu-

1 ment as exhibit 270, the Court ordered them to offer
2 a certificate of authenticity then, and they couldn't 3 do it.

1 THE PRESIDENT: Colonel Mornane, will you
2 come to the lectern?

3 (Whereupon, Colonel Mornane approached 4 the lectern.)

5 THE PRESIDENT: State why you are tendering this 6 additional document.

7 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: Personally, your 8 Honor, I was unaware of the fact that exhibit 270 had 9 been tendered. Rather than waste the Tribunal's time
10 at the moment, I would ask leave to have the opportunity 11 to compare this document with 270 during the recess.
12 If the documents are the same, or substantially the same,
13 that will save the Tribunal having to hear this document 14 read into the record.

15 THE PRESIDENT: You might find out who KUMAGAI
16 is.

17 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: I will have inquiries
18 made as to that, your Honor.

19 THE PRESIDENT: We will suspend action on this 20 document.

21 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: My next document is 22 "Full Report on proceedings -- record of proceedings
23 of the Committee Meeting in the House of Representatives, 24 Volume 8, No. 79. It is prosecution document No. 2774.
25 I tender it for identification.

1 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
2 No. 1840 will be given exhibit No. 2235 as a tentative
3 exhibit number. Document No. 2774, now tendered for 4 identification, will be given exhibit No. 2236 for 5 identification only.

6 (Whereupon, the document above
7 referred to, No. 1840, was marked prose-
8 cution's exhibit No. 2235 and received in
9 evidence as a tentative exhibit number.
10 Document No. 2774 was marked prosecution's
11 exhibit No. 2236 for identification.)

12 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: From this document
13 I tender in evidence excerpts from the statement made
14 by the accused, SATO, Head of Bureau of Military Affairs,
15 and Government Delegate at a Budget Committee Meeting
16 of the 79th session of the Imperial Diet, House of 17 Representative, February 10, 1942. The extracts are 18 taken from page 137.

19 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

20 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
21 No. 2774, an excerpt from the foregoing exhibit for 22 identification, will be given exhibit No. 2236-A.

23 (Whereupon, the document above
24 referred to was marked prosecution's exhib-
25 it No. 2236-A and received in evidence.)

1 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
2 No. 1840 will be given exhibit No. 2235 as a tentative
3 exhibit number. Document No. 2774, now tendered for
4 identification, will be given exhibit No. 2236 for 5 identification only.

6 (Whereupon, the document above
7 referred to, No. 1840, was marked prose-
8 cution's exhibit No. 2235 and received in
9 evidence as a tentative exhibit number.
10 Document No. 2774 was marked prosecution's
11 exhibit No. 2236 for identification.)

12 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: From this document
13 I tender in evidence excerpts from the statement made
14 by the accused, SATO, Head of Bureau of Military Affairs,
15 and Government Delegate at a Budget Committee Meeting
16 of the 79th session of the Imperial Diet, House of 17 Representative, February 10, 1942. The extracts are 18 taken from page 137.

19 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

20 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
21 No. 2774, an excerpt from the foregoing exhibit for 22 identification, will be given exhibit No. 2236-A.

23 (Whereupon, the document above
24 referred to was marked prosecution's exhib-
25 it No. 2236-A and received in evidence.)

1 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
2 No. 1840 will be given exhibit No. 2235 as a tentative
3 exhibit number. Document No. 2774, now tendered for
4 identification, will be given exhibit No. 2236 for 5 identification only.

6 (Whereupon, the document above
7 referred to, No. 1840, was marked pros-8 ecution's exhibit No. 2235 and received in 9 evidence as a tentative exhibit number.
10 Document No. 2774 was marked prosecution's
11 exhibit No. 2336 for identification.)

12 LIEUT. COLONEL: From this document I tender 13 in evidence excerpts from the statement made by the accused,
14 SATO, Head of Bureau of Military Affairs, and Government
15 Delegate at a Budget Committee Meeting of the 79th 16 session of the Imperial Diet, House of Representatives, 17 February 10th, 1942. The extracts are taken from page 18 137.

19 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

20 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
21 No. 2774, an excerpt from the foregoing exhibit for 22 identification, will be given exhibit No. 2236-A.

23 (Whereupon, the document above
24 referred to was marked prosecution's ex-
25 hibit No. 2236-A for identification.)

1 MR. FREEMAN: If the Tribunal pleases, I
2 wish to object to prosecution document 2774 on the 3 ground it contains a misstatement of facts.

4 The first paragraph states "Excerpts from 5 statements made by Major General Kenryo SATO, Head 6 of the Military Affairs Bureau," and so forth, " at 7 a Budget Committee Meeting of the 79th Session of the 8 Imperial Diet, House of Representatives, February 9 10th, 1942."

10 By the prosecution's own admission and state-11 ment contained in document 2944, the opening statement 12 of Colonel Woolworth, the accused, SATO, did not become 13 Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau until April of 14 1944 -- 1942.

15 THE PRESIDENT: The prosecution can look into 16 it during the recess. We will recess for fifteen 17 minutes.

18
19 (Whereupon, at 1446, a recess
20 was taken until 1500, after which the 21 proceedings were resumed as follows:)

1 MARSHAL OF THE COURT: The International
2 Military Tribunal for the Far East is now resumed.

3 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Freeman.

4 MR. FREEMAN: If the Court please, I would 5 like to complete my objection to document 2774 for the 6 sake of the record.

7 This document, therefore, is misleading in 8 that it tends to infer that the words spoken by the 9 accused were spoken when he was Chief of the Military 10 Affairs Bureau. I further object to the introduction 11 of this document on the ground that these statements 12 were made after the war commenced and are not incon-
13 sistent with the attitude and demeanor of a citizen 14 of any country against an enemy thereof, and as highly 15 immaterial and irrelevant and tends to prove or dis-16 prove no issue in this case and had no probative value.

17 THE PRESIDENT: The second point, that the 18 war had started, goes to weight only. Colonel Mornane, 19 it could be that the person who made this statement 20 was the head of the Military Affairs Bureau on the 21 10th of February 1942. That wouldn't be SATO if 22 Mr. Freeman is stating the fact as to the time when 23 he was bureau head. What is the position?

24 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: If it please the 25 Tribunal, I would ask that the original of this

1 exhibit be referred to the Japanese Language Arbitrator.

2 THE PRESIDENT: It will be referred accord-
3 ingly and we suspend action in the meantime.

4 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: I take it that in 5 the meantime I will read this exhibit and if the 6 Japanese Arbitrator --

7 MR. FREEMAN: If the Court please, I object
8 to his reading that at this time.

9 THE PRESIDENT: If it is objected to, it 10 shouldn't be read if there is a serious doubt about 11 it. It may not have been said by SATO. It may have 12 been said by the man who was the head of that bureau 13 at that time.

14 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: In that case, if the 15 Tribunal pleases, with the Tribunal's permission I 16 will leave the document stand down for the time being.

17 My next document is prosecution document
18 No. 2775 which is a full report on proceedings - 19 Record of proceedings of the Committee Meeting in the 20 House of Representatives, Volume 8, No. 81. I 21 tender it for identification and I tender in evidence
22 an extract from the statement made by the Accused SATO
23 at the Budget Committee meeting of the 81st session
24 of the Imperial Diet, House of Representatives, 25 February 18, 1943, which is taken from page 82.

1 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Freeman.

2 MR. FREEMAN: If the Tribunal please, I
3 object to the introduction of this document for the 4 reason that the alleged statement was made after the 5 commencement of the war and is not inconsistent with 6 statements by government officials of any country 7 engaged in intensive warfare.

8 THE PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

9 MR. FREEMAN: May I complete my objection?
10 In addition, this statement could in no way have 11 affected the plan or policy being carried out by the 12 Japanese government at that time with reference to 13 the counts in this indictment and has no probative 14 value.

15 THE PRESIDENT: Objection still overruled.
16 The document is admitted on the usual terms.

17 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution document
18 No. 2775 will receive exhibit No. 2237 for identifica-
19 tion only, and the excerpts therefrom, bearing the 20 same document number, will receive exhibit No. 2237A.

21 (Whereupon, the document above re-
22 ferred to was marked prosecution's exhibit
23 No. 2237 for identification, the excerpts there-
24 from being marked prosecution's exhibit No.
25 2237A and received in evidence.)

"Just as the Prime Minister had been stating previously, there is no change in the general policy of dealing resolutely with anyone who carries on arguments which hinder the execution of the war in any way, regardless of their positions or ranks. However, as you know, recently, various informations are appearing concerning peace talks, Anglo-German peace, Soviet-German peace, etc., in accordance with the changes in the world situation. I do not have the right to bring up each of these points at the present time, but when we investigate the general source from which they emanate, we find that they are due to enemy propaganda. Therefore, if there are people who believe such propaganda and repeat them, it is as if they are doublecrossing not only the soldiers on the front line, but also the people in the production front at home. They will be resolutely dealt with."

If the Tribunal please, reverting to exhibit 2234 I find that the contents are generally the same as exhibit 270.

THE PRESIDENT: You mean 2235 I think.

LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: 2235; I am sorry.

The document, however, has a certificate from the Home Ministry and also the signature of the person

1 who made the outline of the speech. I, therefore,
2 tender the document in evidence, although I do not 3 propose to read it as it has already been, or a similar 4 document has already been read into the record.

5 MR. FREEMAN: I renew the same objections 6 to it.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. The 8 document is admitted on the usual terms.

9 (Whereupon, prosecution's exhibit
10 No. 2235 was received in evidence.)

11 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Logan.

12 MR. LOGAN: If the Tribunal please, as I
13 understand this situation there is one Japanese 14 original and one prosecution English translation of 15 that document which has already been introduced in 16 evidence.

17 THE PRESIDENT: You cannot take this objection, 18 Mr. Logan. I have overruled that objection. We will 19 know how to deal with this situation. We have two 20 translations; we have one original. If we are in 21 doubt we will refer to our board.

22 MR. LOGAN: That is just the point that I
23 wish some information from the Tribunal about.

24 THE PRESIDENT: I can undertake, I think,
25 safely to say that we will refer them both to the board.

1 MR. LOGAN: I understood your Honor to say 2 before the recess that where two translations were 3 offered in English that you would decide which one 4 to accept, but in this case there has been no contest
5 by the defense as to the translation which has already 6 been put in evidence. The defense has not asked that 7 it be referred to the translation bureau.

8 THE PRESIDENT: We are not restricted to 9 that extent, that we cannot refer a matter of trans-10 lation to the board without the concurrence of the 11 defense or the prosecution. We refer the matter to 12 the board for our guidance.

13 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANF: Our last document is 14 the original record of the interrogation of the Accused 15 SATO. It is prosecution document 2887. I tender it 16 for identification and the marked excerpts in evidence.

17 THE PRESIDENT: Admitted on the usual terms.

18 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution document
19 No. 2887 will receive exhibit No. 2238 for identifica-
20 tion only, and the excerpts therefrom, bearing the same 21 document number, will receive exhibit No. 2238A.

22 (Whereupon, the document above referred 23 to was marked prosecution's exhibit No. 2238 for 24 identification, the excerpts therefrom being 25 marked prosecution's exhibit No. 2238A and re-
received in evidence.)

1 LIEUT. COLONEL MORINANE: (Reading) "27 April
2 1946, Page 2.

3 "A. In 1937 I was promoted to Lieutenant 4 Colonel still serving in the War Service Bureau. In 5 August of 1938 I was promoted to Colonel and served 6 as the Army spokesman. This duty included the making
7 of news releases. In December 1938 I became Pro-8 fessor in the Army Air Corps School at Hammatsu. In 9 May of 1938 I became a Staff Officer for the South 10 China Expeditionary Force.

11

12 "In March of 1941 I returned to the War
13 Department, becoming Chief of the War Service Section
14 of the War Service Bureau, being promoted to the rank
15 of Major General in October of the same year. In April 16 of 1942 I became Chief of the War Service Bureau. In 17 December of 1944 I became Assistant Chief of Staff of 18 the China Expeditionary Force. The Chiefs of Staff
19 were: 1. MATSUI, Takuro, Lieutenant General; 2.
20 KOBAYASHI, Asasaburo, Lieutenant General. The Com-
21 mander of the Force was OKAMURA, Meiji, General.

22 "In March of 1945 I was promoted to Lieuten-
23 ant General; and in April of 1945 I became Commander 24 of the 37th Division stationed in Indo China. The 25 division subsequently was ordered to Thailand, where I

1 remained until the end of the war.

2 "Q. How long have you known General TOJO?

3 "A. I first met TOJO when I was a student
4 in the Army War College and TOJO became a professor 5 (Lieutenant Colonel). I studied war history under 6 TOJO for one year. Then later I again met TOJO when he 7 was Vice Minister of War and worked around him for a 8 period of five months while I was the Army Spokesman.
9 I have known him quite well. I have judged him to be 10 a very sincere person, which I first realized when 11 I was sent abroad as language officer. TOJO took 12 good care of my family during that period.

13

14 "Q. Did General TOJO appoint you to the 15 position in the War Ministry as head of the Military 16 Affairs Bureau?" Then an interpolation: "(Q. by 17 Interpreter: Of the Bureau or the Section? A. by 18 Interrogator: Bureau.)

19 "A. Yes, inasmuch as the War Minister makes 20 the appointments, TOJO appointed me."

21 Same date, Pages 4 and 5.

22 "Q. Under an ordinance, your Bureau made the 23 plans for all Prisoner of War Camps in Japan, the 24 construction of buildings, etc., did they not?

25 "A. The policies regarding prisoners of war

1 were determined in the Prisoners of War Section. The 2 actual design of the camps and budget concerns came 3 through my Bureau. The administration was handled
4 by another Bureau.

5 "Q. The correspondence from protecting powers, 6 for example, from the Swiss, in connection with United 7 States prisoners of war held by Japan passed through 8 your Bureau, did it not?

9 "A. They, after obtaining permission from the 10 Foreign Office, dealt only with the Prisoners of War 11 Section, Prisoners of War Information. Only where 12 it concerned me did they have to contact our office.

13 "Q. I understood you to say that your Bureau 14 handled matters involving foreign affairs. Is that 15 true?

16 "A. Yes, our Bureau did handle foreign 17 affairs where they concerned the Army directly. For 18 example, when negotiations were under way with the 19 United States, any replies from the United States
20 came through the Foreign Office to the War Minister, 21 and inasmuch as any decisions would affect the Army
22 we were notified. In cases of prisoners of war, 23 this matter was specifically set aside for the Prisoners
24 of War Section. Such things as removal of fortifications 25 came to us, although they also went to the

1 Heimukyoku (Military Service Bureau). For instance, 2 when the Red Cross wanted to speak to us about the 3 prisoners of war, they went through the Prisoners of 4 War Section, and where it concerned medicine from there
5 were referred to the Medical Bureau.

6

7 "29 April 1946, Pages 6 and 7.

8 "Q. Well, you would say, would you not, that 9 the Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau is probably 10 the third most important member of the military es-11 tablishment. There is the Minister of War, the 12 Chief of Staff, and then comes the Chief of the Mil-13 itary Affairs Bureau - that is conceded, is it not?

14 "A. First I would like to explain that according 15 to the Japanese Constitution, the War Ministry and 16 the General Staff are completely independent and sub-17 servient to the Emperor. The Chief of the Military 18 Affairs Bureau and the Chief of Operations in the 19 General Staff are equivalent in their respective 20 fields.

21 "Q. Do you recall who was Chief of Staff at the 22 time the determination was made to try by court mar-
23 tial the Doolittle flyers who were apprehended?

24 "A. SUGIYAMA was the Chief of Staff.

25 "Q. Who made the determination that the Doolittle

1 flyers who were apprehended were to be tried by court 2 martial?

3 "A. It was decided, I believe, by the Chief of 4 Staff and the Minister of War in conference. However, 5 I do not remember very clearly.

6

7 Same date, Pages 7, 8, 9, 10.

8 "Q. It is true, is it not, General, that the 9 rules in connection with the treatment of prisoners
10 of war were drawn up in conference between the General 11 Staff and the Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau?
12 (Question by General SATO: Are you applying that 13 directly to the Loolittle flyers? Answer by Interro-14 gator: No, just in general.)

15 "A. As I said the other day, matters pertaining 16 to the prisoners of war came to the various Bureaus 17 concerned; a matter such as something affecting the 18 budget would come through my office, things involving 19 medical matters would go through the Medical Affairs 20 Bureau, and so on.

21 "Q. That does not answer my question.

22 "A. The rules were drawn up between the General 23 Staff and the War Ministry, under the War Ministry.
24 The individual rules were drawn up by the various 25 Bureaus.

1 "Q. And the Military Affairs Bureau had their 2 part in the drafting of these rules, did they not?

3 "A. Yes, they were involved in a part of these 4 rules.

5 "Q. As a matter of fact, you made the recommen-
6 dation, did you not, as Chief of Military Affairs
7 Bureau, to the War Minister as to what the rules 8 should be?

9 "A. Yes, matters concerning my office. There 10 were also others which were passed as an order from the 11 War Minister.

12 "Q. General TOJO on the 28th of March this year 13 stated that the rules regarding the treatment of pris-14 oners of war were the result of conferences between 15 the Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau and the Gen-16 eral Staff. Is that statement true or false?

17 "A. That is not true. He must have been mistaken, 18 inasmuch as positions of equal level would meet di-19 rectly. The Chief of Staff would not meet with the 20 Chief of Military Affairs Bureau, but with the War
21 Minister. A Chief of Section in the General Staff could 22 meet with a Chief of Section in the War Ministry.

23 "Q. I did not say that the Chief of Bureau of 24 Military Affairs met with the Chief of Staff. That 25 was not the statement General TOJO made. The statement

1 that he made was that the rules regarding the treat-
2 ment of prisoners of war were the result of conferences
3 between the General Staff and the Chief of Military 4 Affairs Bureau. Now, is that true?

5 "A. That is possible.

6 "Q. When did you serve, General, in Indo China?

7 "A. From April 1945 until the end of the war.

8 "Q. Had you ever served in that territory before 9 in any capacity?

10 "A. In the summer of 1940 I went to Indo China
11 as Staff Officer of the China Expeditionary Forces.

12 "Q. You were Assistant Chief of Staff of the 13 Expeditionary Forces, were you?

14 "A. Yes, Assistant Chief of Staff.

15 "Q. What did you have to do with a bill known as 16 the National Total Mobilization Act?

17 "A. At that time I was a member of the Military 18 Affairs Section of the War Ministry. My connection with 19 that came about in the following manner. The general 20 mobilization law first was a matter of the Cabinet; on 21 the side of the military it was the job of a Mobiliza-22 tion Plans Bureau. When the time came for the 23 bill to be presented to the Diet, it became a matter 24 of the Military Affairs Bureau.

25 "Q. You made a report on the bill in behalf of the War Ministry to the Diet, did you not?

1 "A. The actual report was made by the Premier.
2 My capacity was to explain the bill to the Diet.
3 There are three different positions which are involved 4 in the presentation of a bill to the Diet, of which 5 the person giving the explanation is the third in rank.
6

7 "Q. You had some disagreement at that time with 8 a man named MIYAWAKI, Chochiki, did you not?

9 "A. Yes.

10 "Q. And in the course of your talk in explanation 11 of the bill you told him to 'shut up' did you not?

12 "A. Yes.

13 "Q. They called you 'Shut Up SATO' after that, 14 did they not?

15 "A. There are a lot of mistakes on that thing, 16 so I would like to give an explanation if you have 17 time.

1 "Q. Go ahead.

2 "A The General Mobilization Law was presented
3 in February 1938 to the KONOYE Cabinet. At that time
4 the Diet planned to take the following three measures:
5 1. Forced resignation of the Cabinet; 2. stop 6 passage of an electric power generation law which 7 was disliked very much by the public; 3. eliminate 8 all existing political parties and establish new parties.
9 Although the objectives of the three movements were 10 different, the backers of the movements were united 11 in their expectation of a collision between the Diet
12 and the government. The Diet members were in hopes 13 that this collision could first be obtained through 14 the General Mobilization Law.

15 "At that time Japan was in the midst of 16 the China Incident. In December 1937 Japan attempted 17 to obtain peace with Chiang Kai-shek through the 18 German Ambassador, and in January of 1938 it was 19 realized that there was no hope of a quick settlement.
20 Thus it became obvious that the General Mobilization 21 Law was a necessity. However, the three movements 22 mentioned before were causing undue opposition by the 23 government to the General Mobilization Law. I was 24 worried over this situation in the Diet, due to the 25 conflict. We were using enormous quantities of material, however, we couldn't replace it. The capitalists opposed necessary increase in production facilities, the reason being that the capitalists were expecting a short war. Thus, at the conclusion of the war any investments in increased facilities would be a complete loss. In the last world war there was considerable loss incurred on the part of capital, as they had made enormous increases in production facilities. I do not blame the capitalists for their stand. However, they put the Army in a difficult position. The enterprisers, who are dependent on capital, would have built plants based on orders from the Army, but at the conclusion of the war, with the lack of orders all the investments would have been a total loss. It was, therefore, necessary to protect the enterprisers from such danger. Under the General Mobilization Law the government would administer all such war industries, and in case of the sudden cessation of hostilities the government would also take the responsibility of reimbursing any enterpriser who would thus be caught short. Therefore, the General Mobilization Law was a necessity, not only for the sake of the Army, but also for the capitalists.

"The Diet would not look at the General Mobilization Law in this light and, due to the

1 previously mentioned three movements, put up unneces-
2 sary objections to the law. Because of this opposition
3 I felt very sad. The government was unable to explain
4 this satisfactorily to the Diet and of those present 5 before the Diet I was the only person capable of 6 explaining the implication of the law. Therefore, 7 I was hoping to be given an adequate chance to 8 explain the bill before the Diet. However, since I 9 was only the 'explainer' I did not have the power to 10 go ahead on my own initiative, and finally on about 11 the 24th of February I was told by the Diet that I
12 could present my explanation as the 'explainer'. It 13 was at this point that I stood up to give my explana-
14 tion. Of the explanations given up to that time I 15 feel sincerely that mine was the most powerful one 16 given."

17 MR. FREEMAN: If the Tribunal pleases, this 18 document leaves off a part of that answer. It is just 19 one paragraph and with the Court's permission I would 20 like to read it in the record.

21 THE PRESIDENT: The prosecution may agree to 22 read it.

23 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: The prosecution
24 have no objection, your Honor.

25 (Reading): "Diet member MIYAWAKI was a

1 former army man and personally disliked me. He made 2 all efforts to interrupt or interfere with the explana-
3 tion. At that point I ceased my explanation and asked 4 the Diet whether they wished a continuation of the 5 explanation or not. The leader of the Diet, also 6 the members, expressed a desire to hear the rest of 7 the explanation and therefore I continued. At that 8 time MIYAWAKI put forth more efforts to interrupt me
9 and I told him to shut up."

10 Continuing: "29 April 1946, Pages 11, 12.

11 "Q In 1940 after TOJO became Minister of 12 War he recalled you from South China, did he not, and 13 you were made Chief of the Military Affairs Section?

14 "A I became the Chief of the Military Affairs
15 Section in March of 1941.

16 "Q That was immediately after your recall 17 from South Indo-China?

18 "A Yes, I was there as I frequently had to 19 go down to Indo-China on my duties from South China.
20 During my stay with the South China Expeditionary 21 Forces I went to Indo-China three or four times, 22 remaining only a week or ten days at a time.

23 "Q As Chief of the Military Affairs Section 24 and Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau, you were in 25 accord with the policies of the Minister of War, were

1 you not?

2 "A Yes, I was in agreement with the policy
3 of the Minister of War.

4 "Q When was it that the Japanese troops
5 invaded Indo-China?

6 "A The first entry was made into North 7 Indo-China in September or October of 1940. At that 8 time I was a Staff Officer with the South China
9 Expeditionary Forces. The second invasion was made 10 into South Indo-China in July of 1941. At that time 11 I was the Chief of the Military Affairs Section.

12 "Q Did you consider that invasion of South
13 Indo-China necessary?

14 "A I don't think it could be helped, the 15 reason being that Japan was undergoing hardships in 16 regard to the supply of rubber.

17 "Q You were familiar with the provisions of 18 the Nine Power Treaty and the Briand-Kellogg Non-19 Aggression Pact, were you not?

20 "A Yes.

21 "Q You realize that such invasion was in 22 violation of the provisions of both the Nine Power 23 Treaty and the Briand-Kellogg Pact, do you not?

24 "A Inasmuch as the occupation of Indo-China
25 was made by the Vichy-Japanese Government Agreement,

1 I do not consider it as a war.

2 "Q During the time you served in the War
3 Ministry under General TOJO you frequently consulted 4 with him, did you not?

5 "A Yes, after I became Chief of the Bureau; 6 while Chief of the Section I dealt with the Chief of 7 the Bureau.

8 "Q Who was the Chief of the Military Affairs
9 Bureau before you succeeded to that position?

10 "A MUTO.

11 "Q And you and MUTO were in accord on your 12 policies, were you not?

13 "A Yes and no.

14 "Q Can you say 'yes' or 'no'?

15 "A MUTO felt that the nominations for candi-16 dates for the Diet were proper. However, I disagreed 17 with him on that point.

18 "29 April 1946, Pages 14, 15.

19 "Q I am going to read you a statement here 20 and ask you if it is true:

21 "The rules and regulations regarding 22 prisoners of war were assembled by the Military Affairs
23 Bureau in Conference with the Prisoners Information 24 Bureau and Chiefs of Staff and then presented to the 25 War Minister for approval. The Chief of the Military

1 Affairs Bureau was the main figure in the promulgation 2 of these rules and regulations. The policy for the 3 handling of prisoners of war emanated from the Military 4 Affairs Bureau and the actual handling of the prisoners
5 of war was performed by the Prisoners Information
6 Bureau on down through to the Field Commanders. Al-
7 though the Chief of the Prisoners Information Bureau 8 participated in the making of the policies for the 9 handling of war prisoners, the Chief of the Military 10 Affairs Bureau was the higher authority as exemplified 11 by the fact that if the Chief of the Information Bureau 12 came to the Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau with 13 a plan and it was disapproved by the latter the normal 14 procedure would be to forget the plan there and then 15 because of the position maintained in the Army by the 16 Chief of Military Affairs Bureau plus the fact that he 17 was always in close connection with the War Minister.
18 However, under such circumstances if the Chief of the 19 Prisoners Information Bureau was insistent that his 20 plan, disapproved by the Military Affairs Chief, be 21 carried through then both parties would present the 22 matter to the War Minister for determination.'

23 "A The statement is in part true, but Chiefs 24 of various other Bureaus concerned are omitted from 25 this record and they actually took part in the conferences

1 depending on the point under discussion. As to the 2 reference of a main figure in the promulgation of 3 rules and regulations, I believe the statement is 4 wrong. The main figure depends only on the matter
5 concerned. You may go through the War Ministry records
6 and notice the signatures. At times the Prisoners
7 Administration Bureau was the main figure, at times
8 the Military Affairs Bureau. However, this all depends 9 on the matter under consideration. I disagree with 10 the statement that the Military Affairs Bureau Chief 11 was a higher authority. The mention that the normal 12 procedure was to forget the plan was only if the Chief 13 of the Information Bureau was in accord finally with 14 the Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau. Also the 15 reference that the Chiefs of both Bureaus would present 16 the matter to the War Minister is incorrect. The Chief 17 of the Prisoners Information Bureau had free access to 18 the War Minister and could see him without the Chief of 19 the Military Affairs Bureau. Final determination
20 rested with the War Minister.

21 "Q It is true, is it not, General, that the 22 actual promulgation of the rules regarding prisoners 23 of war, the publication of them, was done by the 24 Military Affairs Bureau?

25 "A The promulgation is done by the Vice

1 Minister of War.

2 "Q It is further stated, General, that 3 when a complaint was received as to the mistreatment
4 of prisoners of war from the International Red Cross
5 the following procedure was in force: The complaint 6 was received in the Foreign Office and referred to 7 the Military Affairs Section, a division of the 8 Military Affairs Bureau. The head of the Military 9 Affairs Section then took the complaint up with the 10 Chief of the Prisoners Information Bureau and as a 11 result of this conference a plan was drawn up to meet 12 the alleged complaint. This plan was presented to 13 the Chief of the Military Affairs Bureau and if 14 approved by him in turn taken to the War Minister 15 for approval. The Military Affairs Section was the 16 door through which all outside complaints came to the 17 War Minister. The International Red Cross, however, 18 would have the right to go directly to the Chief of 19 the Prisoners of War Information Bureau with a complaint, 20 but in such an instance the Information Bureau Chief 21 would confer with the head of the Military Affairs
22 Section and the procedure which I have just outlined 23 would be followed.

24 "A First, I am not quite sure, but I had 25 been under the impression that complaints regarding

1 prisoners first went through the Prisoners Information
2 Bureau. However, the statement may be correct. Any 3 plans which have been drawn up between the Prisoners
4 Information Bureau and the Military Affairs Section 5 could go back to the Minister directly from the 6 Prisoners of War Bureau or the Military Affairs Bureau.
7 It merely depended on the nature of the plan which 8 was drawn up to meet the complaint. I think that when 9 a plan had to be approved by the War Minister it must 10 have gone through the Prisoners of War Administrative 11 Bureau, inasmuch as I have never had to take anything 12 to the War Minister.

13 "Q Do you mean in connection with prisoners 14 of war, or at any time?

15 "A Yes, in reference to prisoners and com-16 plaints by the Red Cross."

1 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: If it please the
2 Tribunal, I now have the Language Arbiter's report
3 on document 2774. That is exhibit 2236.

4 CLERK OF THE COURT: 2236-A, yes.

5 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: 2236-A. The report
6 is that the words "Head of Bureau of Military 7 Affairs ard" should be struck out from the heading 8 of this document. I now propose, with the Tribunal's 9 permission, to read the document.

10 THE PRESIDENT: Before you do so, my 11 attention has been directed to the first page of 12 the document you have just read, No. 2238. In the 13 second line appear the words "War Service Bureau," 14 and in the second line of the next paragraph appear 15 the words "War Service Section of the War Service 16 Bureau." Should that be "Military Affairs Bureau" 17 in each case?

18 LIEUT. COLONEL MORNANE: I understand that 19 is so, your Honor. I understand that "Military Affairs 20 Bureau" can be -- is sometimes translated as "War
21 Service Bureau"; and "War Service Bureau" -- "War
22 Service Section" as "Military Affairs Section."
23

24 MR. FREEMAN: If the Court please, that is 25 a poor translation. In October, 1941, he became head of the Military Affairs Section in the Military

1 Affairs Bureau; in April, 1942, he became Chief of 2 the Military Affairs Bureau, never served in the 3 War Service Bureau. It is entirely different. They 4 are two separate bureaus. TANAKA was head of the 5 War Service Bureau.

6 THE PRESIDENT: Document No. 2774 is ad-7 mitted on the usual terms with the correction just 8 noted.

9 CLERK OF THE COURT: Prosecution's document
10 No. 2774, which has received exhibit No. 2336 and 11 exhibit No. 2336-A is now admitted according to 12 order of the Court.

13 LIEUT. COLONEL MORRANE (Reading): "I believe 14 that the people must, to a certain degree, be made 15 to thoroughly understand the gist of how this Greater 16 East Asia War is being directed, what the outcome of 17 its progress will be, as well as the concrete per-18 spective of its development, and to thereby consolidate 19 their faith in certain victory arising therefrom.

20 "The war will be fought through until both 21 the United States and Britain are brought down to 22 their knees."

23 THE PRESIDENT: I desire now to refer to the 24 question of how far answers made by accused when 25 interrogated could be used against other accused.

1 I refer to page 2782 of the record. In 2 answer to an objection by Mr. Logan, I stated:

3 "Ordinarily, it would be evidence only 4 against the accused who made the admission. I have 5 no doubt about that. I am not prepared to state
6 the decision of the Tribunal without consulting all 7 of" the members. "I do not know to what extent they 8 will be prepared to accept ARAKI's statement as 9 evidence against all of them. But we must hear it 10 as evidence against ARAKI. Whether it will be 11 extended to other accused remains to be determined."

12 At page 2897 Mr. McManus brought the matter
13 up again; and in reply to him, I said:

14 "The Tribunal has not yet decided that 15 question and may not decide it until it is considering 16 the whole of the evidence."

17 Then Mr. Logan at page 2898 again pressed
18 for a decision; and I said:

19 "I can give no undertaking, but I am pre-20 pared to put the matter to my colleagues at a con-21 venient time."

22 I am putting it -- I propose to put it this 23 afternoon.

24 Do you wish to say anything, Mr. Higgins?
25 I understand you do.

1 MR. HIGGINS: Mr. President, Members of 2 the Tribunal, we have offered in evidence from time
3 to time statements made by certain of the accused 4 during what we contend to be the life of the conspir-
5 acy. Under the general rules of evidence in conspir-
6 acy cases, such statements are not only evidence 7 against the person making them, but if they relate 8 to the conspiracy, they become evidence against all 9 members of the conspiracy. On the other hand, we 10 have offered in evidence statements by certain of 11 the accused made since hostilities ceased and the 12 conspiracy terminated. Under the general rules of 13 evidence in conspiracy cases, such statements are 14 evidence against the person making them only and 15 do not constitute evidence against their former 16 associates in the conspiracy. The prosecution does 17 not insist that there should be any relaxation or 18 broadening of these general rules in this case
19 unless expressly provided for in the Charter.

20 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. McManus.

21 MR. McMANUS: If your Honor please, I don't 22 see how at this time the Tribunal can admit statements
23 of an accused against other accused unless the Tribunal 24 has arrived at a predetermined decision that a 25 conspiracy existed.

1 THE PRESIDENT: Even then, it would not be 2 admissible against another accused in an ordinary 3 court.

4 If I understand you rightly, Mr. Higgins,
5 you are saying in effect, "Receive this evidence only 6 against the accused who made the answers and not 7 against the other accused."

8 MR. LOGAN: If the Tribunal please, I
9 believe Mr. Higgins has correctly stated the law, 10 and we press for a decision on the same basis.

11 THE PRESIDENT: Of course, there is nothing
12 in the Charter about it.

13 We take you as tendering these answers in 14 the course of interrogations by the prosecution for 15 the purposes of this trial as being evidence only 16 against the person who made the answer.

17 MR. HIGGINS: That is correct.

18 THE PRESIDENT: Naturally, we won't give 19 it any greater effect than the prosecution invites 20 us to give it. So the objections taken by Mr. Logan 21 and Mr. McManus are sustained.

22 Now there is another matter that we have to 23 discuss, the proposal to tender more evidence in 24 respect of the Russian case, about the further Russian 25 evidence.

1 I am not proposing to give any decision,
2 but I want some information. There is only one
3 prosecution here. It was different in Germany.
4 When the Chief Prosecutor closes the case, it is closed 5 for all nations. Do you suggest that the case should 6 be kept open until the Russian evidence is received?
7 That may be some considerable time.

8 MR. TAVENNER: My understanding of the motion
9 of the Russian Prosecutor was that the case be closed
10 at the time that the Chief of Counsel so announces 11 with the right to introduce the original documents
12 from which excerpts had been tendered at an earlier 13 stage of the trial and had been withdrawn because 14 of the need of the entire original document. Due to 15 the possibility that the motion may have gone beyond 16 my understanding of it, I think the Russian Prosec-17 cutor should be heard on it.

18 THE PRESIDENT: We think he should get that 19 opportunity.

20 Will you be ready tomorrow morning?

21 MR. TAVENNER: Yes, sir.

22 THE PRESIDENT: We will adjourn until half-23 past nine tomorrow morning.

24 (Whereupon, at 1610, an adjournment was 25 taken until Friday, 24 January 1947, at 0930.)
